

Don Cherry's downs Wallace 13-5 for novice lacrosse crown

The Milton Lacrosse Association held its Championship Day for the Novice House League on July 9.

The championship game saw Don Cherry's versus Wallace Pontiac. Don Cherry's came out flying as they scored three goals in the first two and a half minutes of the game. Cherry's never looked back as they defeated the Pontiacs 13-5 to clinch the championship.

Scoring for Don Cherry's were: Kevin Corbin with five goals, Ryan Ellis four, Adam Rutz and Kyle Goertz two goals each. Scoring for the car dealers were: Ricky Gallinger with two goals, Josh Vanderbreggen, Craig Hodgson and Ian Robertson with one goal each.

In one of the most exciting games of the season, the Kinsmen defeated the Gems by a score of 8-7 in the consolation final. The lead changed hands frequently during the game, and the Gems thought they had scored late in the game to tie it, but were over-ruled as the final buzzer had sounded.

Scoring for the Kinsmen were: Matt DeCaire three goals, Adam Dow two, Mike Novak two, and Jessie Rehill one goal. Scoring for Brancier's were: Derek Blanchard three goals, Rob Petherick two, Mike Mills and Brandon Gwilliam one goal each.
