A DOWNTOWN MILTON WEEKLY REPORT ON COMMUNITY NEWS, VIEWS & HAPPENINGS

Cinnamon Bay Opens Shop in the Downtown

A store named Cinnamon Bay can conjure up one of two images. The majority of people will immediately think of a bakery that specializes in cinnamon buns. For the owners of Cinnamon Bay, Mhairi and Mark Kasco, it means something else.

Cinnamon Bay refers to a place in the British Virgin Islands. Mhairi has been there twice and it is one of her favorite spots.

Cinnamon Bay evokes pictures of an exotic location. This is pretty similar to the store which offers a selection of fine home accessories and giftware.

A visit to the store will confirm the variety of selection, everything from the traditional to the eccentric is offered. Notepads, greetings cards, candles, soap, baker's racks, wall accents and garden table and chair sets are all available at Cinnamon Bay. There are still over a dozen other things to mention as well.

Mhairi has wanted to open this type of store for a while and has been watching the growth of the downtown Milton for the right timing. Lately she has seen it building up as the core offers a draw to the community with recent additions and the existing base of businesses.

She believes that people have a great selection of stores to shop in the downtown and hopes that people take advantage of the local business.

So far Mhairi has had a lot of fun and encouragement from just about everybody. Neighboring merchants, the Town and business associations have all welcomed her. However, what means the most is the fact that people are enjoying coming into her shop and browsing.
