

Junior T-Ball team makes it to conso final in London

The Milton Jaycee Junior T-Ball team had high hopes heading into a recent tournament in London.

They were hot in the week leading up to it, winning two league games, one against a tough Cawthra team at home, on the strength of good hitting by Liam Tennant and David Tielemans, and great defence from T.A. Arsenault, Tim Colling and Justin Deshaw.

The other was a defensive battle in Erin Mills, reflected by the low 13-12 score in their favour. Corey Mastrangelo, Justin Deshaw and Matt Mastrangelo made some great snags in the outfield and David Aggio played tight defence at first base. Good baserunning by Chad Leakey and a double by Ryan Ketelaars helped Milton to gain the lead and hold it in the fourth inning.

In London, the Jaycees faced the Cambridge Cubs in the first game of the tournament. Milton belted four home runs, two by Liam Tennant and one each by Ryan Ketelaars and David Tielemans. Milton blew the lead in the fourth inning by allowing 10 runs but came from behind in the fifth to tie the score at 27-27.

picked up in mid-season. Tammy Seigfried — "a very competitive ballplayer and nice person." Also, third baseman, Debbie Etmanski, who was in the Gold Glove competition in Niagara Falls, finishing sixth out of 20 players.

Need to Improve: Hitting against Tier I pitching. "It's difficult," says Lacourse, "but helps in tournaments and PWSA, which has all Tier II teams. When you play against Tier I teams you try to play at their level. When you go back down to the next level you play better than you're expected to."

Pleasant Surprise: The team picked up four players from Burlington at the start of the season. Sometimes that can create a division within the team, but not here. "The camaraderie and good relationship between the Burlington and Milton girls has been better than expected. The girls get along really well, so it is possible to bring people in from another centre and have that."

What's Next: PWSA Tier II qualifier August 12-13. A first, second or third place finish in the tournament qualifies the team for the provincial championships in Richmond Hill, Aug. 26-28.

Chris Boyd's serve hits 105 mph in tennis fair

Tennis anyone? Sure, plenty, for more than 40 Junior and Senior Milton Tennis Club members and their guests at the recent Wilson Tennis Fair.

Participants had the chance to use a Wilson racquet, sample some Snapple and participate in three different on-court activities: Around the World; Target Practice and Team Tennis.

As well, everyone had an opportunity to test their serves against a radar gun.

Jordan Kotack posted the fastest Junior serve, clocking in at 68 mph.

took the silver medal.

The Good: "In the last two or three weeks," says manager Jeffery, "the pitching has been excellent, the defence has been exceptional, and the offense has been awesome."

Need to Improve: "We're peaking exactly when we should be, just before the provincial qualifiers."

Pleasant Surprise: That the team has done so well despite an age change in the classification. Jeffery notes that the majority of their team are 16 and 17 years of age, playing against 18 and 19 year olds.

What's Next: Provincial qualifiers in Byron in mid-August. The team is looking to go to the provincials for the third straight year.

start but at the end of the fourth inning it was a two run game. Milton put up a valiant effort in the fifth, falling just one run short with Reid Johnson standing on third with a triple. There were some great plays at the plate by catcher Robert Smith, and David Aggio (three triples).

Jennifer Cheevers did not disappoint when she took the title for the third straight year among senior women with an 86 mph serve. Chris Boyd impressed everyone by serving into the triple digits. He was tops for the Senior men with a serve of 105 mph.

The Dynamic Doubles Seniors tournament belonged to John Edwards. He prevailed in both the men's and mixed main events. With partner Nick Wollaston, Edwards defeated Tom Maher and Frank Bernard in a decisive men's final.

Matthew Brown (triple) and Liam Tennant (home run) had the bats going.

The tournament was marked by a relentless effort from all the Milton players.
