

Police looking for compact car

A car seen at the site of a rural Milton house entrance may be the key to solving this case, and detectives are eager to hear from anyone who may know something that could lead them to the stolen goods.

Crime Stoppers of Halton

Sometime between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 21, someone forced open a rear window of a house on Fourth Line, north of Lower Base Line.

A television, VCR, stereo system and jewelry box (containing women's jewelry) were then carried out the front door to a waiting car.

At about 3:30 p.m., a compact reddish-brown car was seen pulling into the driveway of the house.

It was driven by a person described as a young male, white, with short brown hair.
