Legion Hurricanes still unbeaten

• from REP HOCKEY on page 23
against Elora, which saw aggressive play from Tyler Hamill and Jeff Nadalin, good hustling by Steve Vivian and great goaltending by Conan O'Brien resulting in a 2-1 win for the Winterhawks.

Milton went up 1-0 in the first period on a marker by Adam Bisenz on a rebound from Rob Petherick. After a scoreless second period, the Winterhawks made it 2-0 when Matt Fennell took a nice pass from Matt Bendt and turned on the goal light.

Elora managed to narrow the gap, putting one by O'Brien on a rebound midway through the third. Milton were short-handed with a minute left in the game when Elora pulled their goalie to give them six attackers, yet couldn't manage to even the score.

Legion minor peewees sport 6-0 record

Halton Hurricanes minor peewees, sponsored by the Georgetown Legion, have improved their record to an impressive 6-0.

Jordan Jeans scored the only goal of the game early in the first period on an assist from Jeff Brownlee to defeat Stoney Creek 1-0. The rest of the match featured end-to-end hockey with both teams coming close on numerous occasions. Goalie Matt Kerfoot had a great game between the pipes for Halton.

In a home game, the Hurricanes came out flying right from the start and pounded Streetsville 11-1. Mike Knoepfli and Jarrett Konkle were the big shooters with four goals apiece. Chris Alarie, Joey Faraone and Carter Trevisani rounded out the scoring. Joel Petkoff assisted on six goals, Scott Nair four, Jordan Jeans three, Brydon Butterworth and Brownlee two, and Alarie and Trevisani each had one.

The scoring was spread out in a 4-2 win over Guelph. Nair, Knoepfli, Brownlee and Trevisani each had a goal. Petkoff picked up two assists with other helpers going to Alarie, Knoepfli, Butterworth, Faraone and Jeans.

The Hurricanes traveled to Chingaucousy and kept their perfect record intact with a 4-1 win. They wasted no time jumping out to an early lead on a goal by Alarie, with Craig McDonald and Faraone drawing the assists. Moments later Andrew Penner came up with the big save for Halton as Chingaucousy came on strong. With time running down in the first Konkle made it 2-0 on helpers from Jeans and Brownlee.

In the second period Chingaucousy made it close on a power play goal but Halton came right back on a marker by Nair, set up by Petkoff. The Hurricanes closed out the scoring on a late goal by McDonald from Trevisani.

Tough tie for Sentrex minor novices

The Halton Sentrex Hurricanes minor novices dominated their game against Stoney Creek but still only managed a 3-3 tie.

Coach Steve Bronizeski and assistant Tim Peters were pleased with the players' hard work and outstanding passing. Matt Bronizewski scored two goals with Robert Sgarbossa netting the other. Assists were by Sgarbossa, Jonathan Southgate, Jay Sprague and Howie Martin.

The Hurricanes ran their record to 4-2 in a 7-1 battering of Streetsville. Bronizewski led the way with a four goal effort while Southgate popped in a pair and Sgarbossa had a single. Tipher Ley had three assists, Martin and Sprague each had two, and Ryan Clost, Bobby Smith, Sgarbossa, Matt

Lyons, Tyler Holmes, Jason Vieira and Dylan Stawarek all added singles. Kyle Russell played his usual strong game in net.

Atom's in deep at Creek

The tone was set in the first four seconds when the Halton Hurricanes minor atoms traveled to Stoney Creek and lost 7-1. Right off the opening faceoff, Ryan McManus was forced to make a difficult save as it quickly became apparent that the speed of the Stoney Creek forward lines was going to pose a threat to the defense all game.

Chris Hay showed well despite being new to the blue-line corps, while veteran help from Matthew Stockton deflected some of the pressure. In the second period, Halton began to mount some pressure of their own and Mike Ley showed great hustle to generate some counter-offensive action.

Tyler Prue and Billy Stevenson, moved the puck up their wings on several good rushes and Ryan Ellis was robbed on a couple of great shots before finally connecting on an assist from William Goba. McManus had several breakaway saves to his credit by the end of the game but it wasn't enough against the powerful Stoney Creek squad.

At Brampton, the defense, helped by a big game from Stefano Citton, stood their ground in a 4-3 win. Ellis secured the win in the final 15 seconds of the game when he launched one into the left corner of the net to complete the hat-trick.

Mike Ley rounded out the scoring on a clean breakaway after a pass from Citton.

Halton spent a lot of time killing penalties in this bump-and-grind type game. John Gleed earned his keep with determined poke checks and by persistently knocking down shots from the point before they got to the goal mouth.
