United we stand

MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) recently kicked off its annual Red Ribbon campaign at Springridge Farm. The campaign focuses on curtailing impaired driving over the holiday season. In on the action were Mayor Gord Krantz, Halton Hills Mayor Marilyn Serjeantson, Carol Redmond, campaign chair, and Sleepy the Travelodge Bear, one of the sponsors.

Blue Springs plans information session

An open house information meeting will be held next Wednesday (Dec. 7) at the Nassagaweya Community Centre, on a proposed land preservation plan for the Eramosa valley corridor (Blue Springs Creek).

The open house runs 6 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. with a formal presentation between 7:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Maps will be available for viewing. Nassagaweya's Community Centre is on Guelph Line in Brookville, 6 km south of Eden Mills. For information call Ward 1/3 regional councillor Barry Lee at (519) 824-0679; Barbara Veale or Wayne MacMillan at the Grand River Conservation Authority (519) 621-2761.
