

Hurricane's lose in Falls

 Continued from Page 16 Hurricanes made the long trip to Welland worthwhile by taking two points back home with them. Welland opened the scoring but with 1:16 remaining in the first period. Halton tied it up with a goal from the stick of Jonathan Southgate, assisted by Matt Bronizewski and Matt Lyons.

Welland replied with the only goal of the second period to make it 2-1.

The Hurricanes kicked it into overdrive in the third. Robert Sgarbossa tied it up with help from Jay Sprague. Two minutes later, Lyons sunk the winning goal from Bronizewski and Southgate, and with only eight seconds remaining Bronizewski scored the insurance marker into an open net from Sgarbossa and Sprague.

Back home, Tonelli Arena was

STANDINGS

H.J.M. Major Curling League

	W		L
Dennis Dubuc	6		1
Steve Oldford	4		3
Bill Cripps	3		2
Ken Armstrong	3		3
Bob Harris	2		2
Barb Curry	3		4
Mitch Jewell	2		4
Graham Gair	1	*	6

to view

OF CANADA

Rep Hockey

invaded by a powerful St. Catharines team who downed Halton 6-2. St. Kitts led 1-0 after the first period and 4-1 after two. Hurricane goal scorers were Sgarbossa and Sprague. Lyons, Dylan Stawarek and Southgate earned assists. Despite the outcome, both goalies, Kyle Russell and Bret Hirtle, played well.

Legion out in semifinals

The Georgetown Legion minor peewee Hurricanes competed in the Niagara Falls, New York Festival of Lights tournament. They played well, but lost 4-3 to the Mississauga Senators in the semifinals.

Halton came out flat in that game, falling behind 4-0 midway through the second period. Chris Alarie finally got things going for the Hurricanes in the second, on assists from Joel Petkoff and Jeff Brownlee.

In the third, Mike Knoepfli made a game of it by rifling in a nice slap shot, from Craig McDonald and Brownlee. In the dying moments Scott Nairn, Joey Faraone and Brownlee, put the game within reach. Halton then pulled their •Continued on Page 19

to backyard. New broadloom, tastefully decorated. Separate dining room, eat-in area of kitchen overlooks park and trees.

A nice home to show.

LIST PRICE $128,900

