Back to back wins for minor novice Legion to end season

Closing things out on a positive note, the Royal Canadian Legion 136 AA minor novice Winterhawks finished their regular season with back-to-back wins over the Chinguacousy Blues. Their final game ended in a 3-1 decision for Milton Saturday in Chinguacousy, where Carl Chan worked the net and backstopped his 'Hawks to victory.

Shannon Miller turned in some great passing and also opened the scoring for Milton early in the first. Alexander Berndt and Matt Chuchmach added first period goals to give the local crew a comfortable lead.

On Jan. 8, with James Connor between the pipes, the 'Hawks managed to out-distance Ching 3-2 - thanks to a two-goal effort by Collard.

Truckers drop one but still on top of the league

The Sandstone Transport AA midget Winterhawks have completed the regular season portion of their 1995/96 campaign, but couldn't close things out before suffering their second league defeat.

The loss came Sunday in Oakville, with a 4-3 heartbreaker against the Rangers. The 'Hawks did manage to draw to within one after spotting the home team a 3-0 lead in the first. They came back with a goal late in the opening period and two more in the middle frame, but were stonewalled through the third.

Darryl Van Loosen tallied twice while Jon Ellison opened the scoring. Drawing assists were Steve Turner with two and Adam Barringer, Paul Loader and Adam Rooke with single helpers.

In their final game Monday at home, the 'Hawks dumped the Georgetown Raiders 5-1. Andrew Hartholt led the attack with two goals and Ben Wilson scored once and set up two others.

Dan McDuffe and Luc Redditt each posted a goal and an assist while single assists also went to Ellison, Turner, Graham Darling, captain Jamie Walker and goalie Blair McTrach - who worked a solid game between the pipes.

The local truckers finished out the season in first place in the Tri-County's Bowen Division with a 19-2-3 record.

Minor atom

Hawks' streak stops at 8

The Wallace Pontiac AA minor atom Winterhawks had their eight-game unbeaten streak snapped last week with a 4-2 loss to the Georgetown Raiders.

The 'Hawks couldn't get into flight, as the Raiders kept up the pressure the entire way. Goalie Dan Dimeo was outstanding, facing 31 shots to Milton's 15.

Counting goals were Josh Wageman and Chris Coates. Brett Lewis drew a pair of helpers while Wageman and Brett Turner had one each.

Milton finished off the regular season with a hard-fought 3-2 victory over the Burlington Oilers. Despite being out-shot 23-13, the 'Hawks played a very disciplined contest and received solid goaltending from Rory Johnston.

Finding the back of the net for the local contingent were Wageman, Derek Blanchard and Mark Hearn while Lewis, Coates, Ian Kornack, Ryan Pilarczyk, Ian Robertson and Darren Yorke recorded assists. Also turning in good hustle were Andrew Claessens, James McIntosh, Dustin Smith and Taylor Coulombe.

The 'Hawks finished out the regular season with a record of 10-13-5.
