Minor atom Hurricanes take 1996 by storm after string of three consecutive victories

• from REP HOCKEY on page 20
 the powerhouse Oakville Rangers.
 Counting goals over the two games were Bronizewski with two and Sgarbossa, Pietz and Sprague with singles.

Minor atoms like '96 so far

The Halton Hurricane minor atoms have had a very successful new year so far, handing out losses to rivals Brampton, Chinguacousy and the Grey/Bruce Highlanders last week.

The power line of Kevin Barbie, Mike Ley and Mike Dube handled the scoring in Halton's 3-2 victory over Brampton — as each counted one goal. Barbie and Ley also drew two assists while Dube's sizzling slapshots created a number of other big opportunities. Working the net was Ryan McManus.

McManus put together a flawless game between the pipes in their next outing, which ended in a 4-0 win over Chinguacousy. Lucas Schott led the way with a goal and two assists while singles went to Andrew Pembleton, Matt Clark and Aaron Cowey.

The 'Canes biggest win came in a 7-2 decision over the Highlanders, despite a two-goal comeback in the opening period. Halton went ahead again in the second with three unanswered goals and cruised to victory.

Turning a hat-trick was Ley and Ryan Ellis counted two. Singles went to Dube and Goba while Ellis also posted three assists and Goba and Ley had two each.

In other recent action, the old hockey adage "there no defense like a good offense" spoke volumes in Chinguacousy recently, where the Halton Hurricane minor atoms handed the hometown Blues a 15-1 drubbing.

Leading the offensive parade were hat-trick men Todd Gilmore and Adam Kemp, while Derek Greaves and Aaron Harrison notched two goals each. Singles went to, Derek Templeton, Andy Alarie, Chad Henry, Brett Robinson and Thabo Gray.

The 'Canes also scored two more decisive wins recently, in 6-2 and 5-2 triumphs over Burlington and Guelph respectively.

Against Burlington, Greaves, Harrison, Kyle Quincey, Adam Kemp, Adam Rutz and Peter Schultz counted the goals while Alarie and Danny Syvret posted two assists each.

Harrison tallied twice to lead Halton past Guelph, with singles going to Kemp, Robinson and Quincey. Kemp, Harrison and Robinson all drew one assist.

Bantams take the top spot with two road victories

The Jaycee bantam A Winterhawks finished their regular season with impressive wins to secure top spot in their division.

Milton's last two victories came on the road against Erin/Hillsburgh and Grand Valley.

A lopsided affair against Erin/Hillsburgh saw the 'Hawks score seven unanswered goals for a shutout victory, with Jamie Funnell working a flawless game between the pipes.

The win was a total team effort with offensive production spread throughout the lineup. Jason Enair notched a pair of goals while captain Paul Hasselfeldt, Mike Depelsmaeker, Ryan Bouskill, Justin Arone and Brian Kerwin scored singles.

A much closer contest in Grand Valley ended in a 6-4 decision for Milton. Depelsmaeker led the attack with two goals, including an insurance marker in the final minute of play to ice the victory. Counting the other goals were Arone, John Richardson, Eric Craig and Marco La Bella. Jon Foley picked up the win in net.

The Jaycees will face Oakville in the first round of the playoffs.
