37 In Memoriams

MCLAUGHLIN, Annie - A loving wife, mother and grandmother and dear friend to many others, who passed away two years ago on February 2, 1994.

God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be,

So He closed His arms around you and whispered "Come to Me"

You did not deserve what you went through, and so He gave you rest.

God's garden must be beautiful for He only takes the best.

In time we saw you sinking. We watched you fade away.

Our hearts were broken when you fought so hard to stay.

But when we saw you sleeping, so peacefully free from pain,

We could not wish you back to suffer that again.

If you had spoken before you died you would have said,

"Don't stand above my grave and cry. I am not there, I did not die."

Lovingly remembered by your family,

Frank, Kim and David, Jennifer, Justin, Dave and Brady, Kathy and Rob, Amber.

40 Card of Thanks

THE BROWNLOW FAMILY would like to express our sincere thanks to relatives, friends, neighbours and co-workers for their comfort, support, visits, cards, flowers and donations in memory of Leonard Brownlow. Your kindness and loving support during this time of sorrow will never be forgotten. We wish to extend special thanks to the personnel at Victims Services, the staff of Shoemaker Funeral Home, to Rev. van Harten, Isabel Weaver and Lawrence Peck for their comforting words and prayers before, during and after the funeral service and to the ladies of Trinity United Church for providing lunch.

With sincere thanks from Carol, Michael and Melanie Brownlow and mother, Mabel (Brownlow) Hives and family.
