New Venture Travel deadlocked with Fergus

First-round OMHA playdowns have the New Venture Travel minor atom A Winterhawks in a deadlock with Fergus after three hard-fought games last week.

After claiming a win each over the first two games, Milton and Fergus fought to a 1-1 tie Sunday in the now six-point series.

The 'Hawks came out on top 4-0 in a great game one effort to start the playoffs in style. Craig Patterson backstopped the club to the shutout victory while Christian Nonis tallied twice and Greg Sheppard and Nick Cashmore picked up singles.

Milton then dropped a heart-breaking 2-1 overtime decision, with Patterson once again turning in a big effort between the pipes. Scoring the lone marker for the 'Hawks was Jeff Webber.

A missed shot on the breakaway by Craig Brigden in the final two seconds saw Milton having to contend with a 1-1 draw in game three. Patterson provided the heroics in net.
