Lead too slim to yield title

The Sandstone Transport AA Midgets couldn't hold onto a one-goal lead, and eventually lost their hold on the championship title at the recent Humberview Huskies AA Invitational Tournament — falling to Michigan's St. Clair in a 4-1 final.

Milton took an early 1-0 advantage in the championship match and held onto it until late in the second. The Michigan team scored with just eight seconds left to even things up and then stormed ahead down the stretch with three goals, including an empty netter to seal the title.

Scoring in the finals for the 'Hawks was Steve Turner, assisted by Jon Ellison.

The local crew posted a 2-1 record in pool play, dropping host Humberview 2-1 and Flint, Michigan 7-3 before losing 5-4 to Cornwall.

They rebounded from the loss with a 2-1 decision over West Nipissing in the semifinals.

Andrew Hartholt led the attack with four goals and two assists during the tournament while teammate Turner had three and Luc Redditt and Jon Ellison tallied twice. Drawing singles were Adam Rooke, Dan McDuffe, Ben Wilson, Darryl Van Loosen and Graham Darling, who also picked up two assists.

Two hat tricks in win of week

A busy schedule recently has seen the Halton Hurricane minor atoms post a win, tie and pair of losses against some feisty opposition — as their regular season campaign winds down to a close.

Halton's win came in a 9-1 drubbing to Stoney Creek, with hat-tricks counted by Adam Kemp and Todd Gilmore. Peter Schultz, Kyle Quincey and Brett Robinson added singles while Robinson and Danny Syvret had two assists each.

Prior to this the 'Canes suffered 7-4 and 5-3 losses to Welland and St. Catharines respectively. Counting goals in the losing efforts were

Bantam Winterhawks hang in with overtime win in Oakville

The Jaycee major bantam A Winterhawks needed overtime to keep their playoff hopes alive Saturday in Oakville, scoring a 3-2 thriller to fight off elimination.

Having lost their previous two games by identical 5-4 counts, a determined Milton crew came out flying and were rewarded for their early efforts when Eric Craig scored from Justin Arone to give their side the lead.

Oakville didn't take long to erase the advantage but the 'Hawks went ahead again on a goal by Jamie Lighthall, with assists going to Matt Brown and Paul Hasselfeldt.

The host team managed to even things up once again and the two went into overtime, where Arone slammed home a huge slapshot with just a minute left on the clock. His goal came on a two-on-one break with Mike Depelsmaecker.

Working the net for his first post-season victory was Jon Foley.

Counting goals in Milton's previous game were Depelsmaecker with a three and Ryan Bouskill with the other. Arone and Jay Enair each drew two assists.

If the Jaycees were successful in fighting off

Robinson with three and Schultz, Adam Rutz, Aaron Harrison and Derek Templeton with one each. Quincey drew three assists with two each from Syvret, Andy Alarie and Derek Greaves.

The 'Canes also fought their way to a 4-4 draw with Oakville, thanks largely to a two-goal effort by Quincey. Singles were counted by Gilmore and Greaves while Syvret chipped in with two assists.

Hawks can't buck a hurricane wind

Revenge was never any sweeter than for the Halton Hurricane minor novices last weekend, when they clipped the Cambridge Hawks' wings and captured the championship trophy at the Windsor Tournament.

Halton stormed back after dropping a 3-0 decision to Cambridge in their third game of the tournament and edged their nemesis 3-2 in the final showdown.

While able to put the previous loss behind them, the 'Canes had to contend with some extra adversity in the championship tilt — including two goals called back on them and a penalty shot awarded to the Hawks.

They managed to fight through this adversity and claim the tournament title.

Leading the way in the finals with a pair of goals was Tyler Holmes, who scored five in total during the tournament and was honored as the MVP in the finals. Also scoring was Mark Humberstone who added another earlier in the day.

Counting the other goals were Creighton Reid, Tyler Gill and Paul Sharples. Holmes, Humberstone and Reid all had three assists as well.

En route to the finals, Halton beat Chingoussy 3-1 and then doubled host Windsor 4-2.

elimination Monday night, they will face Oakville in the rubber match this Saturday in Oakville.

Cecily's in the skating show

Milton resident Cecily Restivo will be competing at this week's Canadian Figure Skating Championships in Ottawa, beginning today (Wednesday) and running through until Sunday.

A member of the Milton Skating Club, Restivo is currently training in Cambridge with the Preston team and is being coached by internationally renowned Kerry Leitch.

Restivo, along with her new partner Scott Cornfoot, will be skating in the Senior Pairs event at the Nationals. She and Cornfoot will also be teaming up with another couple in the lesser known "Fours" competition.

Television coverage of the competition will begin tomorrow (Thursday).

This Valentine's Day tell your special someone how much you care by sending them a Love Line Message featured in Wed. Feb. 14th special Valetine section.
The Canadian Champion will donate the proceeds to the Heart and Stoke Foundation of Ontario.
