Tyke Select

Milton 3 Georgetown 2

The highlight of the game was strong offensive play by the line of John Black, Luc Hartwick and Bobby MacDonald, each scoring once, and each picking up two assists.

In goal for Milton was Greg Robertson.

Milton 3 Chinguacousy 1

The highlight of the games was Joel Gard's pass to David Gooding who's long pass to Connor Mitchell set up Mitchell for the third goal of the game. All players played aggressively.

Scoring for Milton were Jacob DeMarsh from Bobby MacDonald and Scott McTrach.

Luc Hartwick from Matthew Price and John Black, Connor Mitchell from David Gooding and Joel Gard.

In goal for Milton was Greg Robertson. A strong game was played by Robertson, MacDonald and Gard.

Oakville 4 Milton 1

The highlight of this game was Milton's lead by Joel Gard, Bobby MacDonald and Brian Evans (while playing two men short for almost two minutes). Milton held Oakville off the scoreboard until late into the third period.

Scoring for Milton was Connor Mitchell from Bobby MacDonald.

Milton's net was shared by Greg Robertson and David Gooding.

Smooth skating at the Interclub

Milton was well represented by its Skating Club members at the recent Interclub Competition. Sabrina Moran-Grant placed second in the Junior Silver Dance Events.

Ashley Monckton won the Junior Bronze Freeskatte with Ashleigh Lockwood taking second spot. Leanne Cole placed first in the Gold Freeskatte.

Monckton and Cole will now go on to compete at the Ontario Sectional Interclub Championship in Midland March 2. If they finish in the top three in their respective events, they advance to the Provincials in Newmarket later in the month.

Runners Burn-ing competition

A trio of Milton Runners Club members blew past their competition at the recent Robbie Burns 8K Run in Burlington, each finishing atop their respective divisions.

Turning in the best time amongst local runners was Ed Whitlock, who won the men's 60-years and over age group with an outstanding run of 28 minutes, 43 seconds.

He was joined in the winner's circle by Carrie-Anne Nichols and Tina Braam, who took first place honors in the under 15 and women's 50 to 54 age groups respectively. Carrie-Anne completed her run in 35:31 while Tina came in just three minutes, three seconds later. Also finishing in the top three, in the women's 35 to 39 division, was Sue Leeder. She placed second, crossing the finish line at 33:33.

A number of other local runners also showed strongly in the 400-participant event. They included Peter Hawley (31:22), Bill Robertson (34:15), Anna Morris (40:35), George Gillis (42:27), Jennifer Ryell (42:17), Kathy Key (43:49), Phil Jarrett (43:10), Gwen Jarrett (43:10) and Ed Braam (47:02).

A total of seven club members have qualified for the Boston Marathon, which celebrates its 100th anniversary this April. Milton runners eligible for the event are Sue Leeder, Calvin Snow, Janice Snow, Cindy-Anne Johnston, Marg Teskey, Victor Maratovich and Jenny Barnes.

Mitchell seals series win for bants

The Total Team Image major bantams have been turning in some total team efforts recently, and have now advanced to the third round of the OMHA playoffs.

Their latest triumph came over Owen Sound, whom they eliminated in a full five-game second round.

This followed an opening round series win over Georgetown.

While pushing the series to its maximum distance, Owen Sound couldn't stop the Winterhawks from claiming a 4-3 decision in the fifth game and running away with the series.

Providing the heroics in game five was Jeff Mitchell, who took a pass from set-up man Tyler Zemplak and slammed home the game-winner with a mere four minutes remaining on the clock.

Also scoring in the rubber match were Steve Szafer, Adam McIsaac and Cory Leigh. Working the cage was Kyle Donnan.

Owen Sound had managed to take games three and four, by 3-2 and 4-1 counts, prior to Milton's game five victory. The 'Hawks stormed out for the series lead with 7-4 and 3-2 wins.

They will now face Burlington in the last series before the quarterfinals.

Marlin swimmers earn PBs at East York meet

Novice competitors on the Milton Marlin Swim Team continued to improve their performances at the recent East York Novice Swim Meet.

Although none came away with medals, most improved their times. Leading the way was Erinj Ragany, who set three personal bests in the 50 metre freestyle, 50m breaststroke and 50m backstroke. Jacqueline Clark earned a personal best in the 50m freestyle and shed 17 seconds off her 50m breaststroke finish.

Amy Danks, Jennifer Claessens, David Wassenick and Andrew Prenter-Duff also scored personal bests. Other local competitors at the meet were Michelle Claessens and Kevin Winter.

These young competitors all placed in the top 10 in their respective age groups.
