The Thompson House Grill, a titillating concert for the taste buds.

by Anthony Allwood
Milton Downtown BIA

For the past several months Miltonians and guests alike have been treated to some of the finest nouveau cuisine in southern Ontario.

The Thompson House Grill, which opened its doors in Downtown Milton last December, is making its mark in the culinary world. Guests to the Thompson House can expect fantastic nouveau cuisine with a Mediterranean flare. From hand rolled fresh pasta to lamb, the Thompson House has a fine menu selection sure to please the food lover.

Other selections include gourmet pizza and a variety of grilled veal, chicken and beef dishes. The Thompson House Grill is also gaining a reputation for their incredible house salad which contains over 14 fresh exotic summer greens, and their secret homemade dressing. This summer the Thompson House will be featuring a new menu with many new favorites.

The Thompson House Grill, which is one of Milton's only non-smoking eating establishments, is open for lunch Monday to Friday from 11:30 am to 2:30 pm, and for dinner Wednesday to Friday from 5:00 pm to 10:00 pm. The Thompson House Grill is also open Saturdays from 11:30 am until 10:00 pm.

Reservations can be made at the Thompson House Grill by phoning 876-2477. The Thompson House Grill is located at 165 Main Street East, across from Knox Presbyterian Church.

Cavan, Carol, Dawn, and Shawn welcome all to come down and enjoy a fine meal in the newly restored Thompson House.
