championship round during the previous week by Harris Stationery. The winner of that game advanced to the consolation round. Despite being knocked out, two of Millside's players, Jamie Comba and Jeff Currie were both in the top 10 for players scoring during the season and playoffs.

Recipients of Hockey Moms Most Sportsman award at the senior house league banquet were: Ryan Pender, Matt Bell, Scott Tovey, Michael Gregory and Cam Hutcheson. The Most Improved player awards went to: Peter Merry, Kyle Sirbovan, Paul Jackson, Jason Brownridge and Robert Grimwood.

Minor Atom

Austin Noble Ins. 2, Gallinger 1

An initial goal by Sean Laforest in the dying seconds of the middle frame came back to haunt Gallinger Motors, who had managed to turn the momentum to their favor and dominated the last two periods. However, Gallinger's crew could only draw even with Austin Noble through the final stanza — with a goal each just 52 seconds apart — and ended up on the short end of a one-goal decision. Wayne Benson's third period tally drew Gallinger Motors to within one of their opposition while Tim Anderson tucked in a backhand shot for Austin Noble's game winner. He also assisted on Laforest's opening goal.

Also drawing an assist for the winners was Brandon Zuillim while Eric Wilson picked up a helper for Gallinger Motors. Jody McGibbon was in net for Austin Noble and David Van Der Vliet guarded the Gallinger cage.

Gus Mowbray 4, Royal Bank 3

"This team earned every win they got this year and definitely deserved to be champions today," said Gus Mowbray skipper

Keith Jones. "We lost the first five games of the season, and then went from the bottom to the top. Everyone played to the best of their ability today."

Leading his club to the title was Steve Virian, who deposited three straight goals. Picking up the team's first goal was David Brown while Jared Bailey drew two assists and Andrew Herbert, Sean Sullivan and Chris Radbourn had single helpers. Luke Madansky worked the net. Counting goals for the Royal Bank were Richard Demicle, Kevin Corbin and Omar Sorrel.
