Workshop promotes good self-image for teenagers

A workshop that focuses on preventing drug abuse among youths through recreation will be held next week.

The free workshop for parents, coaches and recreation leaders Wednesday, May 1 will promote fair play practices and positive role modelling as well as increasing participants' skills in handling substance abuse problems.

"Recreation leaders and coaches are in a unique position to play a constructive role in the lives of youth," said coordinator

Bonnie Ward of the Town of Milton's leisure services department, a co-sponsor.

The workshop will be held at the Milton Leisure Centre from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Ms Ward says the program promotes self-esteem, and teens with a solid self-image are less likely to turn to drugs.

The event is co-sponsored by Halton Action in Substance Abuse Prevention, the Halton District Health Council and Milton's three high schools. To register or for information, call Ms Ward at 875-1681.
