Open houses featuring displays to take guests down memory lane will be held both May 3 and 4 in the school's new Hall of Fame Bishop Reding Piazza.

A 5:30 p.m. mass at Holy Rosary Church, followed by a beer garden in the school gym at 7:30 p.m. will highlight the festivities Saturday, May 4. The official welcome and dedication of the new piazza will take place at 7 p.m.

From 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, alumni athletics will be held with the mile challenge at 10:30 a.m., girls' volleyball at 11 a.m., girls' basketball at 12:30 p.m., girls' field hockey at 1 p.m. and boys' basketball at 2 p.m.

In honour of the anniversary, the estate of the late Kathleen Ann Reding, sister of the late Bishop P. F. Reding, donated a cheque for $2,000 to the school to fund a scholarship and graduation awards.

Bishop Reding, who died in 1983, was deeply committed to Catholic education and his support helped bring it to Halton, said school principal Onnig Pilibossian.

"Bishop Reding would be proud of the school and what it has accomplished over its first 10 years," he said.

Souvenirs will be available for purchase throughout the weekend. Tickets for the beer garden (admission restricted to those 19 years of age and over), which will include a light supper, cost $20 and must be purchased in advance. Call the school at 875-0124.

Students and cops team up at Respect for Law Camp

A group of grade 7 students will be rounded up and escorted into Halton Regional Police headquarters on Bronte Road August 24 and 25.

This will not, however, be punishment for senseless acts of vandalism or shoplifting.

Instead, the students will be on the right side of the law as they take part in the fifth annual Halton Respect for Law Camp, sponsored by the Optimist Clubs of Halton.

The camp is designed to show students that officers are regular people like everyone else.

Regional police will be joined by the OPP, the RCMP and a local fire department to demonstrate techniques and equipment. Much of the learning will be "hands on," say organizers.

Applications are available at all schools and must be submitted by June 1.

A $26 fee covers the cost of the camp. For further information contact Phyllis Ann Way at 878-6392.
