Taylor's take dive, come up golden

Milton's diving brothers Chris and Rob Taylor continue to shine in local competition. Their most recent efforts came at the Spring Break Invitational Meet in Burlington.

Up against top divers from Markham, London, Burlington, Kitchener, Scarborough, Etobicoke and Gloucester, the Taylors combined for three gold medals over the two-day competition.

Chris won both the one and three metre springboard events in the Tier II 14- and 15-year-old division while Rob scored a one-metre board triumph in the Tier III 16-years and up class.

Meanwhile, fellow Milton diver Virginia Young — competing in the Tier II 16 and over category — placed fifth on the one-metre board. The Tier II and III Ontario Provincial Championships, slated for June 15 and 16 in Scarborough.

All three have now qualified for ended up seventh in the under-10 shot put with 5.49m.

James Beatty, 11, just missed reaching the podium with a fourth place finish — 14.4s — in the under-12 boys 100m. Sister Lauren, nine, had an identical placing in the under-10 girls sprint, setting a personal best of 16.6s.

Wrapping up the local results was Tanya Rumble, 10, who came sixth in the under-10 girls 100m, crossing the finish line with a personal best time of 17.5s.

Malcolm Syme, 9, made some of the biggest improvements of his team at the meet. Among them were an additional 15 centimetres on his long jump — now 3.62m — to capture bronze. He also dipped under the 16-second mark over 100m, finishing fifth in 15.9s and ended up seventh in the under-10 shot put with 5.49m.

Rookie

J. Scott Early 24 Vern's Water 20

This was the opening game of the season and for many of the players their first ever game. Great plays by both teams, both at bat and in defence.

Leading hitters for the winners were the whole team.

Leading hitters for the losers were everybody.

MRL Freight 30 Hertz 25

The Highlight of the game was good defence by both teams which made this an enjoyable first game for both teams. A last at bat home run by MRL's Kaileigh Turner was a good ending to a good game.

Leading hitters for the winners were Kaileigh Turner (Home Run), Lisa Naccarto (Double).

Leading hitters for the losers were Kaita Commons (3), Jill Ayres (3), Nancy Matalik (3), Amy Wilson (3) and Erin Lecky (3) hits.

A Catered Affair 30 Shoppers Drug Mart 24

The Highlight of the game was a home run by Catered Affair's Kymi Baker which helped make this a close game enjoyed by everyone.
