It's about bloomin' time

Finally, spring is beginning to feel sprung. Anxious gardeners have waited for a taste of warm weather to get started on their annual labours. Monica Minakakis carries bedding plants to her car from the Blooms for Baldwin plant sale on Saturday. Despite the rainy weather, large crowds turned out for the fundraiser for Robert Baldwin School, which also featured a barbecue and a dunk tank.

Do you like browsing the small towns of Elora, Caledon or Niagara-on-the-Lake?

The General Store is a totally new concept store, it's full of an amazing variety of "neat stuff" you'd have to drive many miles to find, and it's right here in Mississauga!

60 small town stores from as far as Kenabeek in Northern Ontario have joined us in offering the public "The best of Ontario all under one roof". Importers from Holland, Indonesia and Scotland, one-of-a-kind home-wares, unique gifts from Canadian artists and Crafters, custom clothing, decorated art, imported confectionery and much, much, more.

Visit us at 3055 Dundas St West, Mississauga, (between Winston Churchill and the 403, next to Classic Bowl). From Milton straight down Trafalgar to #5. Or call 905-608-0777 if you need directions.
