Can you spare some change?

Motorists found themselves confronted with a toll Saturday morning on Ontario Street as Halton Regional Police raised money for the Ontario Special Olympics. Off-duty officers and Maplehurst Correctional Centre workers asked drivers for donations at the traffic lights outside E.C. Drury High School.

Alert citizen leads cops to collar

A citizen helped police nab three suspects in connection with a break-in at a Sam Sherratt School portable May 10.

The culprits broke into the building and knocked some desks and chairs around, Halton Regional Police said. Nothing was damaged. Three 14-year-old male youths were arrested and charged with break and enter and mischief after a citizen reported seeing people entering the portable shortly before 8:30 p.m.

The citizen provided descriptions of the suspects, which helped lead to arrests, police said.

Police Blotter

Two thieves remain at large

One man was arrested after police found a break-in in progress at a Steeles Avenue lawn centre May 7.

Three suspects were spotted taking three garden tractors and a company van at 4:20 a.m.

Police managed to make one arrest, but two other suspects got away. No property was stolen.

Charged with break and enter is a 22-year-old Hamilton man.

Mill Street house ransacked overnight

Two occupants of a Mill Street residence were sleeping as someone broke in overnight May 10.

The residents, who are deaf, remained asleep while the culprit made off with a video cassette recorder and a video game system, police said.

The break-in occurred sometime between 1 and 6:30 a.m.
