Slo-pitch highlights

Legionnaires were shut out for the first six innings and could not fashion enough offence in the remainder of the game, dropping a close 7-6 contest. Leading the dance parade for The Weasel were Ian Grant, Vic Wilyman, Greg Elkie and newcomer Dan Cashmore, each with three hit games, and Sam Perry added a two-run dinger to secure the win.

Wally's Meats and Aim Lock played to a kiss-your-sister 10-10 tie as head Lockster Wayne Nikolich's ninth inning solo shot provided the heroics. Chuck Ryan, Steve Beauchamp and Cecil VanGelder each chipped in with three hits to aid the Safe Squad secure the tie.

For the Meatcutters it was Doug Thompson at four for four, while Mike Boughton, Dunc Currie and Bruce Nicholson all smacked out three safeties to pad their batting averages.

Thursday night saw Remax Realty defeat Halton Pool 18-11, as Gary Chiasson and Bob Comport lead the pack with four for five from the plate, backed up by three hits each from Terry Morgan and Bob Newman.

The Realtors scored an early five runs in the top of the first, and added a seven run outburst in the eighth to close out the issue.

The Poolsters got multi-hit performances from Neil Wood, Hector Campbell, Norm Johnson and Randy Murray in a losing effort.

Across the park at Thompson, a late-arriving Fred Bakes joined the cheerleaders from the Dickens and guided his club to a 16-7 drubbing of the Bayrischer Hof. A super four for five night at the plate coupled with some defensive gems from Brian Alomar, I mean Gildea, highlighted this game.

Graeme Colvin and Clayton Hackenbrook rubbed salt in it with four for five nights. Ron Fisher's four for four evening, and Gary Smith's homer and triple, were the only highlights from the Baybats.

Primus Printing continued to roll as Randy Novak's two K performance of a couple of weeks ago was eclipsed by a pair of homers in an easy 23-8 pasting of the Key Centre. Ron Furik and Randy Meyer each added four for four outings for the Printers, while Jeff Cookson and boss Phil Dimaso kicked in three hits each.

Chris Heath and Bill Flipping provided three hit outings for the Key Cutters, while Pat McCann's pair of doubles and Rick Laufman and Don Mark, each with a pair of hits, were the balance of Howse's offence.

Sidenote: Congratulations to the Milton Magic Girls under 11 and Boys under 14 soccer teams for their performance, both on and off the field, this past weekend in Rochester, New York.
