Injuries hit Milton District in Halton rugby playdowns

By ANDREW HYDE
Special to The Champion

If every journey has its obstacles, the Milton District High School rugby team ran into a mountain when they took on the Oakville Trafalgar Red Devils recently.

The Mustangs took a 2-0-1 record into the bout knowing that they would need a tremendous effort to knock off the 25-year Halton rugby champion Red Devils.

The first half of the game looked promising for the Mustangs. An O.T. bobble five minutes in led to a 50-yard romp by Gareth Llewelyn. The drive ended with Doug Taylor being knocked out of bounds one yard short of a try.

Milton played on the same level as O.T. for most of the first half, with the Red Devils mustering only a penalty kick. The 3-0 score had O.T. players bickering during half-time, while the Mustangs could feel an upset brewing.

The second half was not so bright for Milton, though. One minute into the half, the powerful O.T. eight-man scored the first of his two tries in the game. The Under-20 Team Canada prospect made a dash from midfield, leaving a trail of would-be tacklers behind him.

The Mustangs did their best to stay close, but were done in by a severe disadvantage in the lineouts. Jon Dempster, a key part of the Mustang lineout, had to leave early in the game with a separated shoulder.

Oakville Trafalgar ended up taking the game 27-0 in front of their home crowd. The Mustangs, however, could take heart in knowing that the average margin of victory for O.T. this year has been in the 70 to 80 point range.

The Mustangs ended the regular season with a 2-1-1 record and staggered into a playoff match against Notre Dame.

With many players still injured from the game two days earlier, the Mustangs took the field with a patchwork lineup. Jim Mora was moved from winger to fullback and Rob Stevenson was forced to step in at second row.

In a game that was consistent with the Mustangs' season, Milton couldn't get any momentum built. Having been beaten by the Mustangs twice already, Notre Dame came out with a spirited effort and marched down the muddy field for the only two scores of the game. A heavy downpour seemed appropriate as the 12-0 final score ended Milton's rugby season.

Buffalo bound

The Milton HJM Insurance Red Sox will be taking their annual bus trip to Buffalo to catch some Bisons' action on Saturday, June 15.

The bus will leave the HJM Office parking lot (245 Commercial Street) at 4:30 p.m. and arrive shortly before the Bisons take the field against the Omaha Royals. The bus will return immediately after the game, with no stops.

The cost of the trip will be $50 per person and will include a space at Pettibones Indoor Patio (overlooking the ball game) as well as a buffet and beer or wine. For more information, call Ken Armstrong at 876-4607 or Glen Turner at 878-6477.
