Police lay charges of child molesting

A local man has been charged after a 10-year-old girl complained that she was sexually assaulted.

The girl recently told her mother that a man fondled her while she was staying at the home of family friends on Guelph Line in December or January, Halton Regional Police said. The suspect was visiting the Campbellville home when the alleged assault occurred, said Det. Sgt. Ron Welsh. Charged with sexual assault and sexual interference is a 43-year-old Campbellville man.
