Minor mosquito reps rebound for split

Milton's Expedite Plus minor mosquito rep baseball team earned a two-game split recently, falling to Burlington Blue 11-7 and the rebounding with a 6-2 victory over the Georgetown Eagles.

Heads up baserunning was the name of the game against Georgetown, as five of Milton's six runs scored were stolen at the plate.

Beating the tag at home were Hallen King, Tilly Tielemans, Liam Tennant, Tim Colling and Troy Squance while David Tielemans earned the only RBI for his crew.

Strong fielding came from Nick Mazzarato, David Aggio, Chad Leakey and Ryan Ketelaars with Matt Mastrangelo and T.A. Arsenault combining for some effective pitching.

Milton kept pace with Burlington through most of the game and drew even in the sixth on runs by Ketelaars and Arsenault.

Unfortunately Blue added four more runs in their final at-bat to crush the rally.

Tennant came up with a big double play, with help by Aggio, while Colling once again stole home for a third-inning run.
