

Free fun at Ag museum

The Ontario Agricultural Museum kicks off its season with free entrance to Canada Day celebrations next Monday (July 1).

The museum will be offering pony rides, horse drawn wagon tours, fresh strawberries and family games, as well as musical entertainment. A fundraising picnic to help save the museum, which is losing provincial funding, will be held at 5:30 p.m., within the museum grounds. Entrance to that event, which features live entertainment, is $20.

Hire a student and win a pizza

The first five employers who hire a student tomorrow (Thursday) will win a pizza from the Canada Employment Centre for Students. Employment centre staff indicate no job order placed Thursday will be too big or too small, and that homeowners are invited to participate as well. Centre workers say they have more than 200 students registered and seeking full-time, part-time or casual work. Prospective employers should call the centre at 878-8418.
