Bargain hunters are wanted by Halton Regional Police this Saturday.

Police will hold an auction featuring more than 180 bicycles and other unclaimed property at headquarters in Oakville.

A central air conditioning unit, costume and fine gold jewelry, a satellite video receiver and five-inch television will be some of the notable goods for sale.

"There will be something for everyone," said Halton police spokesman Sgt. Frank Phillips.

The auction will be held indoors with viewing and registration from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. followed by the sale. Light refreshments will be available.

Halton police headquarters is situated at 1151 Bronte Rd. just north of the QEW.
