

Success seminar for women

Halton Women's Place presents the "Reaching for Success" business seminar, featuring two dynamic guest speakers who will outline a combination of personal and financial expertise, next Wednesday (Sept. 18). Funds raised will benefit the shelter's "For a Safer Tomorrow" campaign to maintain quality children's programming at Halton Women's Place.

Well-known corporate motivational speaker Rosalie Wysocki will be on hand to introduce 1990's style techniques to increase personal productivity and success. Joining her will be KPMG partner and newspaper columnist Deb MacPherson, to deal with the pragmatic side of the future, relating both to personal financial planning and philanthropy.

The event will take place at the Burlington Seniors Centre, 2285 New St., beginning at 7:30 p.m. and ending before 10 p.m. Gourmet cakes and coffee will be served. There will be raffle and door prizes. Tickets are $10. For more information and to order tickets, call Marta Stiteler Simon or Jan Czuba at 905-332-1200.

Give one minute of silence followed by one moment of sound on the United Nations International Day of Peace, Tuesday, September 17th.

"A Peal of for Peace", held every year on the third Tuesday of September, originated in 1981. It has been held in Milton as a project of the Milton Council for Peace for a number of years. This year the Milton Baha'i community is spearheading it.

Its purpose is to "celebrate our sense of heat-felt-connection with human being around the world in our hope and will for peace", according to Toronto area "A Peal for Peace" organizers.

Milton area schools, businesses and churches have been invited to stop for a minute of silence at 12 noon on the 17th. Then they'll make whatever joyful noise they like - ring a bell, whistle, sing, shout, clap, beep a horn, etc.

Small grants end

By BRAD REAUME
The Champion

Small annual grants to social service agencies will be phased out as part of Halton Region's overall subsidy restructuring.

In the works for several years, the phasing out of social service grants will allow Halton to finance new short-term programs which are not covered by provincial funding.

Pending council approval the restructured funding will begin during the 1998 budget cycle, when it is expected the new Healthy Community Program will be phased in. The Healthy Community

Program is focused on prevention of problems.

Burlington Mayor Walter Mulkeewich said the region should be prepared to move into a great variety of new organizational structures and "move away from 1980s thinking."

A review of grant funding in 1995 resulted in four agencies being cut off from regional grants, a 20 per cent decrease in grants to two agencies, a phase-out of small grants to seven large agencies over three years and joint funding and amalgamation proposals from 13 agencies. The budget was reduced 20 per cent to $527,000 for 1996.

Halton holds fundraiser

Halton Region employees will hold a giant garage sale Saturday in their ongoing initiatives to raise money for the United Way.

The sale, which runs from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., will be held at the Halton Regional Centre, 1151 Bronte Rd., just north of the QEW.

"There will be a lot of interesting items so come on out, get a bargain or two and enjoy the day," said Halton Regional Police spokesman Sgt. Frank Phillips, who sent out a press release announcing the event.
