

Slow Pitch

As I write this column on Saturday, Sept. 7, Remax Realty, The Bay Hof and Primus Print are in a dogfight for Division B honours, with final rankings to be determined on the last night of the schedule, while Bruce Hood, Halton Pool and The Dickens are in a similar struggle in the A group.

The mathematical combinations and permutations might even confuse our resident teachers Dave Adams, Brent MacArthur, Tony Fiorita and John Iantorno, who definitely all must deserve a PD Day by now, after the first two weeks of school.

The resurgence of The Legion and Spencer Engineers in the last two weeks, as well as some timely wins, by The Waltzing Weasel and Aim Lock, may cast some shadows on the dreams of glory of those who finish atop the leader board.

It has almost always been that the teams that manage to win the regular season, somehow manage to roll over and die when the chips are on the line. Not to say that this will be the case this time around, but your not so humble reporter, as he has done in the past, has prepared his play-off picks for '96.

The championship game will see Primus Print squeak past Bruce Hood, while the consolation final will pit The Bayrischer Hof against Halton Pool, with the BayBoys winning a close one.
