Halton Regional Police later arrested a man.

A 42-year-old Commercial Street man faces charges of impaired driving, failing to remain at the scene of an accident and failing to report an accident.

Naked man spotted

A cyclist reported to police that he saw a naked man standing along a trail at Hilton Falls Saturday at 3:20 p.m.

The man is described as in his mid-fifties, five-foot-11 with dark hair and a medium build.

Resident encounters thief on front lawn

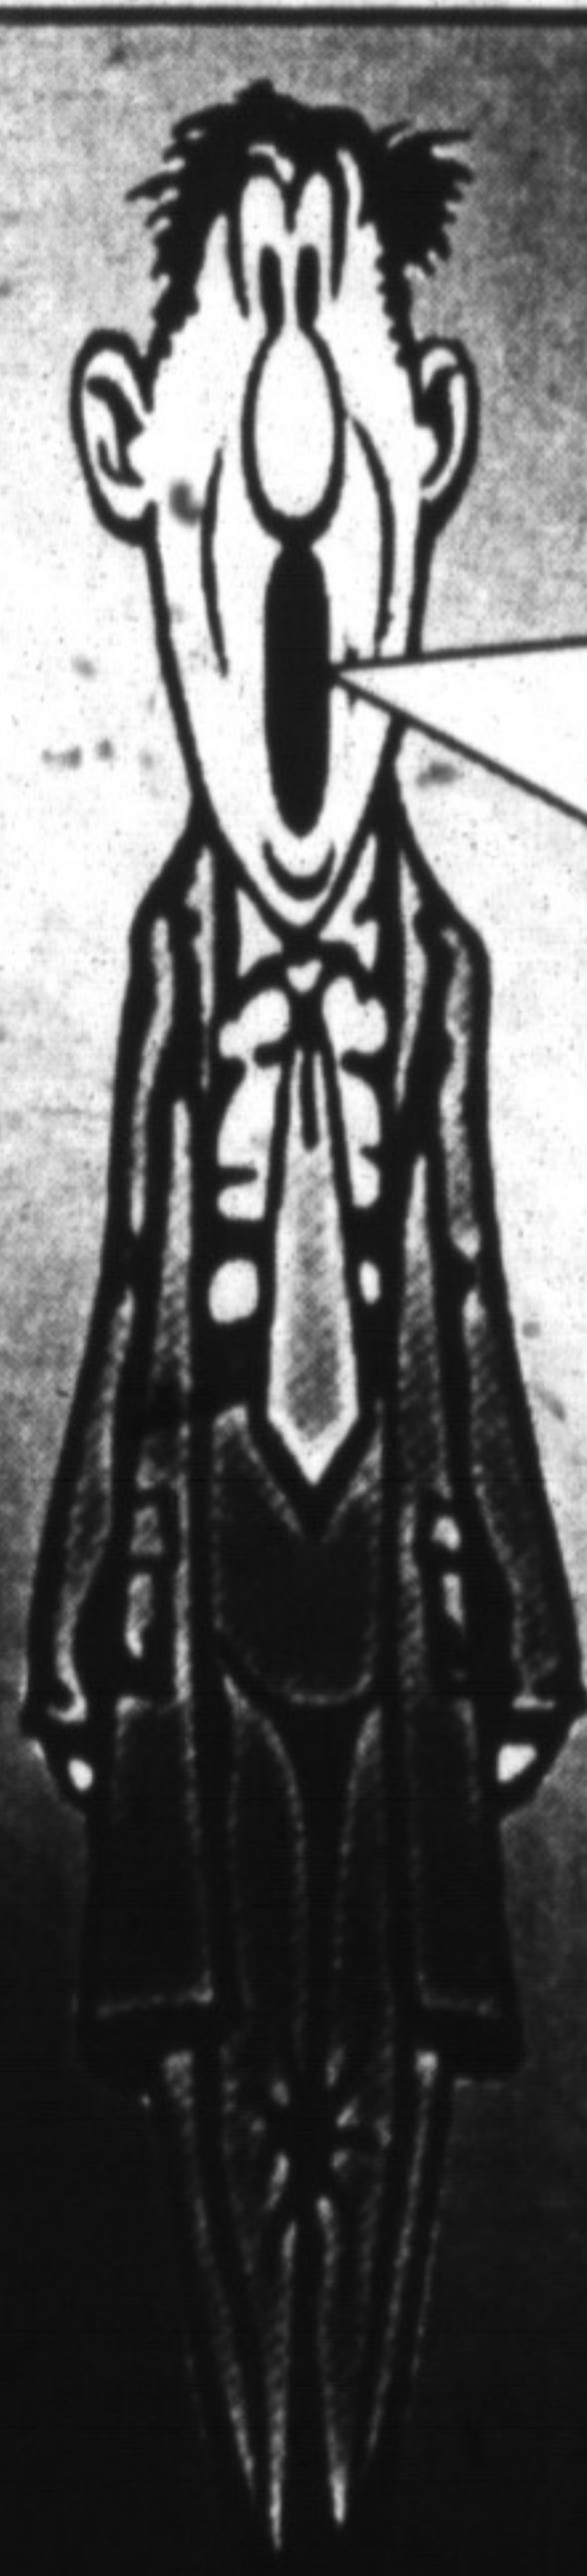

A Campbellville resident returned home September 6 during the afternoon and found a pick-up truck driving across his lawn.

It turns out his Fourth Line home had just been broken into. The thief escaped.

Stolen were cash, a telephone, microwave, video cassette recorder and television.

The break-in occurred between 10 a.m. and 12:44 p.m.

The vehicle was described as a black GMC pick-up truck. Police are investigating.
