

Air crew aiming high

The 1996/97 edition of the Milton minor bantam AA Winterhawks picked up right where they left off as major peewees last season - on a winning note.

The Spectrum Airways sponsored crew have dominated rivals Oakville and St. Catharines in pre-season play this month, outscoring them 26-4 in four straight victories.

This year's team looks to have plenty of offensive firepower in talented forwards Jarret Konkle, Andrew Marshall, Jacob Vanderbreggen, Craig McDonald, Shawn McConnell, Derek Mewhinney, Dave Kornack, Matt Ventura and Bren Silk.

Jordan Jeans, Matt de Ree, Mike Austin, Brian Shaw, Matt Craig and Chris Beal provide the 'Hawks with a defensive unit deep in both size and mobility, while Josh Arnold and Chris Kovachik offer an effective goaltending tandem.

Leading the group into action once again will be skipper Darren Rouselle, who will be joined by assistants Ian McCormick and Grant Thompson and trainer Scott Anders. When asked about his expectations for the team, Rouselle had a very simple response. "Our goal is to win everything," he said.

Truckers rattle Oakville Rangers

The Sandstone Transport AA midgets continued their strong preseason campaign recently with a win and a draw against the Oakville Rangers.

Milton had little trouble disposing of their regional opponents 6-2 last week at Memorial Arena, but needed third-period goals by Luc Redditt and Matt Peers to finish off with a 5-5 tie earlier in Oakville.

Along with a goal and assist, Peers turned a hat-trick to pace the 'Hawks to victory at home. Redditt proved to be the big set-up man of the series with four assists to go with his one tally.

Ben Wilson scored once and added three assists while Paul Loader tallied twice and set up a third goal. Also scoring were Ryan Marshall, Steve Szafer and Dan McDuffie - who added two assists. Cory Leigh and Jason Pento also had a pair of helpers.

Cobra meet

Athletiques International Track and Field Club will once again host the 17th annual Cobra Cross-Country Meet at Shell Park in Oakville this Saturday (Sept. 28).

The event will feature a series of races for both adults and children, starting as young as eight years old. Individual races will run all day long, with a tentative visit by Olympic champion Donovan Bailey.

To register, or for more information, call Bruce Burton at 827-8725.

Skating ex on this weekend

The Kelso Skating Academy will present an exhibition of competitive figure skating at Memorial Arena this Saturday (Sept. 28).

The hour-long presentation will run from 11 a.m. to noon. For more information on the Kelso Skating Academy, call Nancy McDonell at 878-4394.
