

Ford finds the scoring range

The Milton bantam AA Winterhawks needed just one shot to beat Oakville last Thursday during their season opener, but used all three periods to bury them 7-0.

On the strength of a four-goal night by sniper Jason Ford, Milton unloaded on the Rangers with 35 shots. Winterhawk netminder Trevor Saliba meanwhile, turned back all 12 shots he faced.

Ford scored on Milton's first shot and followed it up with a second tally moments later. He also scored his team's fourth and fifth goals.

Also denting the twine were David McFarlane, Mike Austin and Jon Sprenger — who drew an assist on Ford's second goal.

Danny Bonham and Brian

Kerwin recorded two helpers each while Chris Beale, Jerrett Konkle, Craig MacDonald and Chad Merritt posted single assists.

Austin, Beale, MacDonald,

Konkle and Brian Shaw were all called up from the minor bantam squad, to fill the gap left by a number of players suspended during an exhibition tilt in Guelph.

Truckers open season in style

The Sandstone Transport AA midget Winterhawks scored a 9-3 victory over the Raiders in Georgetown recently in their Tri-County season opener, and then duplicated that effort the following night at home against the Oakville Rangers.

Jeff Seeds led the scoring with four goals and three assists over the two games. Cory Leigh took it to the next level in the second period of the second win, turning a natural hat-trick. He also drew an assist later in the game.

Jeff Mitchell tallied twice and drew a pair of helpers while Ben Wilson also potted two and added an assist. Paul Loader and Matt Peers proved to be the big set-up men with five assists each over the two games. Peers also scored against Georgetown.

Milton club cleans up in Tae Kwon do meet

The Young Choung Tae Kwon Do Club of Milton was the class of the recent Newmarket Tournament, as 25 students combined to win 43 medals.

A total of eight local club members were double gold winners in sparring and forms. They included Mike Haiawi, Sue Sommers, Nicole Ercolani, Chris McHorn, Tom Snow, Mary Beth Peddill, Victoria Duffield and Stephanie Lees — part of the prominent martial art Lees family.

Christopher and Paul Lees scored two medals each while Andrew Lees took home a silver in sparring. Other double medal winners were Domenic Tetro, Ryan Ercolani, P.J. McColl, Dwayne McWheaney, Mark Wanless, Ryan Weschka and Kristen Bonham.

Jennifer Morrison, Steven Duffield, Cameron Ivens, Kristal Twiss, T.J. Snow and Jerome Christesen all netted one medal a piece.

Merchants

• from NORTH on page 21 wrist-shots. Also scoring were MacDonald, Schomogyi, Van Arkel and Trevor Downey.

Merchant notes: Despite a well-balanced scoring punch, Milton has yet to break out with a real powerplay attack. They've registered only five goals this season with the man advantage .... The Merchants have scored at least three second-period goals in five of their six games .... Milton travels to Brampton tomorrow (Thursday) for their second game against the Capitals while Friday they host Hamilton Kilty Bees.
