Locally owned horse a favourite

Elegantimage, a two-year-old trotting filly with Milton connections, looms as one of the favourites for the $406,200 Cadillac Breeders Crown Filly Trot at Mohawk Raceway tonight (Friday).

Although she didn't win her elimination on October 11, the daughter of Balanced Image certainly had an excuse for her second-place finish. Sent postward the odds-on betting choice, Elegantimage was crowded shortly after the start and went off-stride. However, she rallied with a tremendous stretch kick to finish only two and one-half lengths behind the winner No Nonsense Woman and driver Jim Doherty.

with BRUCE MURRAY

Co-owned by Doug and Marc Hyatt of Milton, Jerry Vanboekel of Putnam, Doug Millard of Woodstock and driver Steve Condren, also of Milton, Elegantimage has already banked more than $150,000 in winning four of her nine starts, including a $100,000 Ontario Sires Stakes at Woodbine in August and the recent $82,100 Robert Stewart Stakes at Mohawk. Trained by Kitchener's Brad Maxwell, Elegantimage will stake her claim to divisional honours with a victory tonight.

Commenting on the filly's troubled trip in the elimination, Condren said, "(Driver Jim Doherty with No Nonsense Woman) didn't touch me, but he put the squeeze play on me. She made up a lot of ground, though, and came quite a last half (mile) after that. I hope she performs as well again."

Eight fillies will go to the post in the $406,200 Trot, part of the $2.4 million Cadillac Breeders Crown, the richest evening in Canadian harness racing history.

the 4,600-metre course.

Reding's Scott Birnie and John McDougall placed seventh and ninth respectively to anchor their team, but Simon Collins-Pallett (20th), Brendon Coyle (23rd) and George Dimitrov (31st) of MD came in before the Royals' four-runner contingent finished.

George Kerr came fourth and Derek Birnie took 11th place to pace Reding to a silver-medal showing in the junior boys' 5,700 metre event. MD's top finisher was David Sjessor in 24th place.

The Mustangs and Royals battled it out one final time in the senior boys 7,000 metre trek, with MD squeezing by for second-place and BR having to settle for third. Graham Darling of Reding was in ahead of all MD runners, but the 'Stangs Jason Fish, Jason Brownridge, Matt O'Brien and Greg Tonelli all had top-20 finishes to give their school the division.

Reding's Kathleen Charko and Fiona Silcock were the top local runners in midjet girls, placing 11th and 13th respectively. Tom Baynton and Brooke Johnson were the top finishers among E.C. Drury's handful of competitors. Baynton placed fifth in the senior boys race while Johnson was seventh among the junior girls.
