- Pinpoint your financial needs for retirement.
- Learn how to minimize your taxes.
- Discover how to maximize your income with minimum financial risk.

Classroom education and planning - the keys to financial success

Financial Strategies for Successful Retirement® is a four-session course designed to help people of all ages learn how to prepare their finances for retirement. During this course, you will discover how to systematically address your retirement needs, identify potentially problematic aspects of your financial situation and explore strategies to overcome common problems. All topics are covered in a manner that enables you to easily adapt the information to your unique financial situation.

Financial experts routinely cite education and good planning as key elements of long-term financial success.

It is never too early to plan for retirement. In fact, the more you have to implement your financial strategies and take advantage of compound interest, the more successful you will be. Whether you plan to retire 20 years from now, or in just a few months, this seminar is relevant to you.

Offered throughout Canada and the United States by trained, licensed professionals, these seminars have been recognized for their exceptional, objective content. The courses have been sponsored by over 750 educational institutions, 1,800 corporations and 300 organizations.
