

Truckers win two easily

• from REP HOCKEY on page 18

Having relinquished a 4-3 advantage over St. Catharines with two third-period goals, Saliba stood on his head Saturday to throw some light on a dismal week for Milton - who also dropped an 8-5 decision to Brampton last Monday.

Paul Pento and Brent Smith counted goals in Milton's victory while Kevin Heffron recorded an assist and Jon Sprenger anchored a strong defensive effort in his first game on the blue line.

All four Hawk goals came in the middle frame against St. Catharines. Pacing the forward lines with a goal and assist each were Sprenger and Jason Ford while Brian Kerwin and Michael Leishman added single markers. Assists came from Heffron and David McFarlane.

Against Brampton, Heffron and Darryl Bonham tallied twice while Chris Bramwell set up both Heffron goals and notched his team's other score.

Truckers pound opposition

The Sandstone Transport AA Midget Winterhawks unloaded with the heavy artillery and sent their opponents running for cover in recent Tri-County play.

Their latest efforts to remain unbeaten came, at the expense of St. Catharines and Chinguacousy, who were bombed 11-1 and 11-4 respectively.

Milton's machine-gun offense fired 32 shots in the third period alone at Memorial, and had little trouble claiming a 10-goal margin of victory over St. Catharines. Matt Peers turned a hat-trick and added an assist while Adam Rooke and Jeff Seeds had two-goal nights. Cory Leigh was also impressive with a goal and three assists and Brent Van Loosen scored once and added two helpers. Single markers came from Paul Loader and Jeff Chaisson, who also drew a helper. Dan McDuffe and Steve Turner chalked up two assists each.

Another robust offensive showing gave Milton a convincing win over the feisty Blues in Chinguacousy. The Hawks has managed only a 5-5 tie with the Blues in their previous meeting.

Anchoring Milton's efforts with a five-point night was Luc Redditt, who tallied twice and drew three assists. Peers also scored two goals and set up a third while Rooke and Seeds each recorded a goal and two assists. Van Loosen, Jeff Mitchell and Steve Szafer had a goal and an assist while Chaisson and Turner added one each.

No Thanksgiving charity for minor atom Truckers

The Halton Lift-Truck minor atom AA Winterhawks enjoyed very little charity over the Thanksgiving weekend, with some tough opposition throughout the Burlington Invitational Tournament.

While claiming a 5-2 win over the host Burlington Oilers, Milton was trimmed 4-3 by Ajax and blanked 4-0 by Aurora, thus bounced from playoff contention.

The Hawks erased a three-goal lead in their opening battle with Ajax, only to succumb to their opponents inside the three-minute mark of the final frame for a heart-breaking one-goal defeat.

Counting one goal and one assist each were Evan Burrell and Jamie Webb, while Kyle Strong had the other marker. Single helpers went to Steve Ellison, Matt Lenardon, Mattie Reed and David Tielemans.

After a scoring drought against Aurora, the Hawks ended their round-robin per-
