Minor atoms steamroll

Some intense shooting practice paid off for the Action Utility Trailers minor atom A Winterhawks, as they steamrolled their opposition in back-to-back outings last week.

Liam Tennant had the hot hands with seven points over the two game stretch, including two goals and two assists in a convincing 6-1 victory over Erin. Also scoring for Milton were Philip Foley with a pair and Jake Madansky and Mike Sonsogno with singles.

Matt Mastrangelo drew a couple of assists while single helpers went to Sonsogno, Laura Lighthall, Greg Pepper, Kyle Scott and Sam Tomlinson. Mike Sanders was impressive between the pipes, with strong checking games turned in by David Aggio and Chris Hill.

Tennant continued his torrid pace with a goal and two assists as Arthur was next to fall prey to the 'Hawks, in a lopsided 10-3 Milton win.

Also posting three-point nights were Foley and Noel Coutrouzas, who each contributed two goals and an assist.

Goalie Troy Squance slammed the door shut after Arthur scored three quick goals in the opening frame, and it was all Milton from there on.

Rounding out the scoring were Madansky with two and Pepper and Tim Warmels with a goal and an assist each. Warmels' goal — a howitzer from the point to push Milton into double-digit land — was his first of the season.

Corey Mastrangelo also dented the twine. Drawing a pair of helpers were Lighthall and Sonsogno while Matt Mastrangelo recorded one.

Faith in colt pays off big

It was a long time coming for owner/trainer Wayne Bloomfield, but the wait was worth it, as his two-year-old trotting colt Pleasant Time pulled off a major upset to win the $73,517 Canadian Breeders Championship on Sunday evening at Mohawk Raceway.

With Ross Battin in the sulky, Pleasant Time came flying through the stretch to cruise past favourites So And So and Armbro Plato for a four-length victory in an impressive mile of 2:00.3/5.

"He's small but he always had lots of ability, just no luck," Bloomfield said. "Luck is a big factor. Back in March when he was training down I said 'this is a special horse.' He trotted right from day one. I've never trained a trotter with so much ability."

The winner's share of $36,758 boosted Pleasant Time's season earnings to $53,948. Sent off at odds of 13-1, he returned $29.50 for the victory.

In the $96,513 Canadian Breeders two-year-old colt pace By Xample and Northern Luck finished one-two.

Owned by Robert Hamather of Hensall, By Xample went wire-to-wire for driver Tony Kerwood to defeat Northern Luck by four lengths in a stakes record time of 1:54.4/5. It was the fourth win in 10 starts this year for the standout Camluck colt who increased his bankroll to $185,106.

"He has such extreme speed," said Kerwood of By Xample, who's trained by Joe Stutzman.

"I'm not surprised with him. He showed me he was this kind of colt early in the year."
