Pontiac purrs with five points

The Wallace Pontiac major novice AA Winterhawks took an endurance test earlier this month, and passed with flying colors as they scored five of six possible points in a three-game, four-day stretch.

Milton finished their test with a 4-3 triumph over the Oakville Rangers, netting a pair of third-period markers after relinquishing a two-goal lead in the middle stanza.

Elgin Reid scored what would eventually stand up as the game winner, on an end-to-end rush, and also put his team ahead in the opening frame. Alex Berndt helped pad that initial lead with another first-period goal while Scott Collard found the mark in the third.

Drawing an assist on that third goal was Kyle Hearn. Netminder James Connor was impressive through the first and final frames.

Goals by Hearn and Matt Chuchmach and some strong performances by Robbie Hunt and Chris Pedulla combined for Milton's 2-1 win over the Georgetown Raiders two days earlier.

Assisting on Hearn's tally was Jeff Kitchen. The one-goal victory featured plenty of action and numerous scoring chances.

The 'Hawks had to settle for a 3-3 tie with Woolwich to start their three-game stretch, when their opponents pulled their goalie in the final minute of the game and scored a last-ditch equalizer.

Milton had fought back from two one-goal deficits before Clayton

Holman scored their go-ahead goal midway through the third. Also denting the twine were Berndt and Hearn. Assists went to Kitchen and David Dimco.

Streak had to end for one

The major peewee Hurricanes' unbeaten streak ended at four games Saturday, Nov. 2 with a 5-1 loss to Stoney Creek, who used the game to run their own undefeated string to eight.

Travis Van Loosen scored Halton's lone goal, with Ryan Busby drawing the assist.

Earlier in the week, the 'Canes met up with another unbeaten team, St. Catharines, and had them on the ropes until the final two minutes of the contest — which eventually ended in a 2-2 tie.

Josh Agar notched the first goal with help from Paul Pedula. Putting his team ahead for the second time was Brad MacDonald. Busby and David Brooks set him up.

This year's major peewee Hurricanes are much improved as their 4-1-1 record indicates. Along with Brooks, Pedula and Van Loosen, Frank Fazio and Evan Jeans represent the Milton community while John Craig, Ryan Emilio, Kevin Kleinpaste, Trevor Kristiansen, Ryan Larose, Adam Laskis and David Taylor round out the rest of the roster. Guiding the pack behind the bench are coaches Scott Melee and Sandy Gillis.

Atoms have the edge

For the second time in two weeks, the major atom A Winterhawks pulled off a one-goal victory over Hillsburgh with a 3-2 final Saturday, Nov. 2. And for the second-straight time, a third-period goal decided the outcome.

Tim Anderson played hero this time around, with the final go-ahead goal inside the last minute of play. Assisting on the game-winner with a great pass was Mark McLeod, who also set up Daniel Wetselaar's winning tally in their previous 2-1 triumph over Hillsburgh.

The 'Hawks had taken leads in both the first and second periods, but each time relinquished their advantage to a feisty Hillsburgh crew. Milton's first two goals came within the opening minute of each frame.

Backstopping the 'Hawks once again past Hillsburgh was Jody McGibbon, who made some particularly impressive glove saves.

Anchoring Milton's offensive efforts was Ryan Pilarczyk. He set up Doug Pottruff's first-period marker and then gave his team their second lead — with assists from John La Bella and Greg Sheppard.

Nick Cashmore was another standout up front with some aggressive play on right wing.
