A fiery crash at Trafalgar and Derry roads claimed a Milton woman's life yesterday morning. Here firefighters hose down the truck involved. A car was pinned beneath the truck.

Milton woman dies in crash

A Milton woman was killed in a terrible crash involving a car and a tractor-trailer at Trafalgar and Derry roads yesterday morning.

Jackie Baverstock, 46, of Tremaine Road died at the scene.

Preliminary reports indicate her east-bound Ford Tempo went through a red light and drove under the side of a south-bound tractor-trailer unit in the intersection at 5:43 a.m., Halton Regional Police said.

The car became wedged under the truck and burst into flames as it was dragged south of the intersection, said Sgt. Frank Phillips.

"It was totally wedged underneath. There was no way anybody could have got at it," he said.

The Dumencu family was wakened by a loud bang and soon discovered the fiery crash in front of their Trafalgar Road home, just south of Derry Road.

Sue and David Dumencu saw flames shoot out of the burning rig about 70 feet from their front window.

"The tires (of the trailer) started to blow," Mrs. Dumencu said.

The truck driver, Patrick Jarvis of Westland, Michigan, wasn't injured.

Trafalgar Road at Derry Road was closed to southbound traffic and cars were diverted from exiting Hwy. 401 at Trafalgar Road.

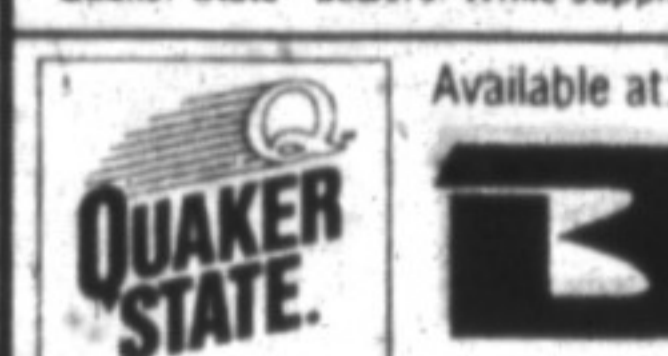

The accident is under investigation by the Halton police public safety unit.
