Rangers surprise Sandstone 5-3

• from HOCKEY on page 19
blasting the Oakville Rangers 9-2.

Backstopping the 'Hawks with a sound netminding effort was Jamie Funnell.

Team scoring was spread throughout the line-up as David McFarlane, Paul Pentto, Brent Smith and Jon Sprenger all tallied twice and Chris Bramwell chalked up four assists.

Danny Bonham also dented the twine with Kevin Heffron counted a pair of helpers and single assists coming from Smith, Paul Faggion, Kevin Heffron, Michael Leishman and Jeremy Robert.

The number 13 came into play in their next challenge as well against Georgetown, when Funnell turned aside that many shots for a big 4-1 victory over the Raiders.

Milton meanwhile, fired 26 shots at Georgetown's net, and got two goals out of Jason Ford and one each from Bonham and Pentto.

Pentto also drew two assists with Bonham, Ford and Bryan Gent posting one apiece.

Rangers upset Sandstone

A lack of discipline proved to be the Sandstone Transport AA Winterhawks' Achilles heel Sunday in Oakville, where they gave up three powerplay goals and fell 5-3 to the Oakville Rangers.

It was just their second loss in Tri-County league play this season.

Luc Redditt had put his 'Hawks ahead early in the third with a short-handed tally, but the opportunistic Rangers capitalized on their breaks and unblocked with three unanswered goals down the stretch to put another blemish on Milton's 1996 record.

Redditt also scored in the opening frame while Cory Beigh tallied in the second.

One of Oakville's power play goals came on a two-man advantage.

Drawing assists for the truckers were Jeff Chaisson, Bobby McKnight and Jeff Seeds.

Milton kayoed twice

The major atom A Winterhawks suffered a double-knockout last week, with back-to-back home ice losses.

Milton struggled through much of their battle with Fergus and lost 7-2.

Scoring for the home team were Erick Lizon and Jeff Webber, with Wade Mahoney setting up both markers. Single assists went to David Brown and Ryan Pilarczyk.

Three nights later the 'Hawks kept things much closer against Guelph, as a third-period goal gave the visitors a 2-1 victory.

They had used a second-period powerplay to draw even after Milton jumped ahead in the first on Greg Sheppard's tally. Setting him up were Lizon and Pilarczyk.

Craig Patterson turned in an outstanding performance between the pipes.

Twisters double minor atoms

The Grand Valley Twisters left a trail of devastation in their path last Saturday at Milton Memorial arena, handing the Action Utility Trailers minor atom A Winterhawks just their third loss this season, a 4-2 decision.

The 'Hawks had a strong opening frame, firing seven shots at Grand Valley's net and finally scoring when Philip Foley converted a rebound left by Liam Tennant in a mad goalmouth scramble.

The second period saw Grand Valley tie the game in the first minute before Milton went ahead again in the final 60 seconds when Sam Tomlinson and David Aggio set up Laura Lighthall, who banked in a wrist shot from a bad angle.

Although goalie Troy Squance held off the opposition as long as he could, Grand Valley dominated the third, firing in three unanswered goals for a final 4-2 count.

Greg Pepper, Kyle Scott and Tim Warmels had strong games for the 'Hawks.
