

Tourney shows Drury's mat pack in fine form already

Another season of wrestling has begun for E.C. Drury's elite mat-pack, and like every year the Spartans haven't let any time elapse before racking up the medals.

Drury's new crop of rookies traveled to the Hagersville Novice Tournament on Saturday and captured six medals en route to a third-place team finish.

Junior Dynamo graduate Andy Wadeson was E.C.'s first gold medallist of the 1996/97 season, while Graham Carroll, Chris Holmes and Rory McDonnell brought home silvers. Also taking silver was Dynamo Club member Jeremy Chuchmach of Bishop Reding.

Sean Burnham and Phil Mulkins were bronze medallists on the day, with Ryan Faria, Andrew

McCarthy and Matt Moffatt rounding out the top five finishers.

Justin Billingham and Chris Denich highlighted Drury's efforts at the always tough Brock Age Group Tournament Sunday, each stringing together unblemished records for gold medals.

Billingham's title came in the 119 lbs. Cadet division, where he went 3-0, while veteran Denich won four straight matches to win the 159 lbs. Espoir class. Among Denich's wins were two over a couple of top provincial contenders.

Blair Beaulieu and Brad Madden both claimed silver in the Cadet division while Grant Heffron won bronze in the Espoir division. Rounding out the top five finishers was Scott Mills, who won three matches to grab fifth-place honors.

Bigger they are, harder they'll fall to peewees

Older and bigger competition hasn't seemed to hurt the Tecumseh minor peewee A Winterhawks this season, as they currently boast a 9-5-3 record.

Their latest efforts featured a convincing 6-0 shutout over Erin/Hillsburgh and a come-from-behind draw with first-place Fergus — whom they trail in the standings by just a game.

Nathaniel Murray was the star in the Erin/Hillsburgh match with a flawless performance in net, while the line of Mike Winiarz, Barry Kosmalski and Paul Szafer figured in four of the six goals. Playmaker Winiarz collected three assists.

Thomas Patrick and Connor Sweeney notched the other two tallies with helpers going to Darryl Tjelemans, Jordan Gunter and Tyler Hamill.

Providing Murray with sound defensive assistance were blueliners Matt Funnell and Jeff Nadalin while Wesley McDougall initiated some good scoring opportunities.

Winiarz helped set up Szafer in their next outing against Fergus, and gave Milton an initial lead in the opening minute of the game.

Goalie James Kaiser gave up a goal one minute later, but his teammates regained the advantage, on a powerplay tally by Winiarz, with 51 seconds remaining in the first.

The 'Hawks took a beating in the second and relinquished three straight goals before a late marker by Julian Ricci closed the gap to one.

Kosmalski tied the game at the seven minute mark of the third when he flipped a rebound left by Szafer over a sprawled Fergus goalie.

Szafer also assisted on Winiarz' goal, as did Kosmalski. Sweeney drew an assist as well, while inspired play up front by Rob Bennett and David Spahich and sound defensive efforts from Matt Berndt and Greg Brown added to the team's impressive outing.
