Food to Go

Kelsey's collecting for food bank

A Kelsey's employee may be knocking on your door tomorrow.

The Chisholm Drive Kelsey's is one of 26 of the restaurant chain's locations taking part in a door-to-door holiday food drive.

All 50 employees at the Chisholm Drive Kelsey's will be knocking on doors requesting food donations for those less fortunate, said Roger Ewe, the manager.

In the first Kelsey's Holiday Food Drive, staff will start tomorrow distributing 'Food to Go — Holiday Drive Bags' to collect non-perishable food items.

Then on Saturday, Dec. 14, employees will re-visit homes from noon to 4 p.m. to pick up donations. For people not available during those hours, Kelsey's will collect bags left on doorsteps.

"The Kelsey's Holiday Food Drive has been developed for two simple objectives — to help families in need and to give support within the community," said Paul Jeffery, CEO of Kelsey's International Inc.

"It is a sad reality that so many Canadians are not able to enjoy a truly festive holiday meal. In the spirit of the holiday season, our managers and employees are volunteering their time to support the many communities that have supported us."

Residents who donate three or more food items will be given a free appetizer card redeemable at any Kelsey's location.

"The need for local food banks has never been greater as the numbers of families and children relying on them for nourishment on a regular basis is becoming increasingly higher," Mr. Jeffery said.

"I encourage everyone to dig deep into their cupboards and fill up the bags for a most worthwhile cause."

ONTARIO
MUSIC

Keynote Kids

"Keynote Kids" proves to be a most successful pre-school program, in over 25 years. "This program for 3-5 year old youngster is the most exciting introduction to musical studies ever," says Joanne Parker, Principal of the Ontario Academy of Music.

"Keynote Kids" has the children performing on rhythm instruments and keyboards very quickly and with a great deal of enjoyment.

To capture the interest of a 3 or 4 year old and keep their attention has always been a challenge. "Keynote Kids" has accomplished that by having a very structured program that moves quickly from rhythm instruments, to singing, playing musical games to playing songs on a keyboard. They simply don't have time to be bored, claimed the enthused parents!

The Ontario Academy has branches in Milton, Georgetown, Burlington, Oakville and Brampton. All of the Academy studios have now switched to the successful "Keynote Kids" program! There are 8 sessions of 8 lessons each to prepare the children for a progressive graded course of study.

To preview this successful program call your local academy studio.
