Red-hot shooter Luc Redditt is in seventh heaven

Luc Redditt was in seventh heaven — literally — Saturday night after single-handedly dismantling the Orangeville Crushers at Memorial Arena.

The second-year Sandstone Transport AA midget forward unloaded with seven goals and paced his Winterhawks to a 9-2 rout of Orangeville in game one of their Tri-County playoff campaign.

Milton finished two points ahead of Orangeville for first in the Bowen Division.

After a scoreless opening frame, Redditt spent the rest of the early evening bout exploiting the Crushers' defensive web. In addition to his torrid scoring display, which included natural hat-tricks in the second and third periods, he also assisted on singles by Adam Rooke and Brent Van Loosen.

Backstopping Milton with a 30-save performance was Blair McTrach while Jeff Seeds played set-up man with five assists. Jeff Chaisson and Ben Wilson registered two helpers a piece, with Paul Loader and Dan McDuffie counting one each.

The 'Hawks will continue Tri-County playoff action Friday night at Alcott Arena, with a 9:30 p.m. start against the Georgetown Raiders. OMHA playdowns are set to begin very soon.
