Now that's a deal

Zoe Whitehead (right), recently purchased a car at Gorrud Sales and Leasing but she didn't expect to cut quite as good a deal as she ended up making. That's because the Milton woman won $1,000 in a draw for the car dealer's customers during a year-end promotion. Pictured with the lucky winner are sales representative Fred Arnold (left) and Gorrud general manager Andrew Gorman (centre). The two men are holding some of the other ballots.

Store robbery

Bad start to new year

A Milton variety store has the dubious distinction of being the first to be targeted for a robbery in 1997, and Crime Stoppers wants it to be among the first holdups to be solved.

At 3:15 New Year's Day morning, two masked thugs entered the Mac's convenience store on Bronte Street, south of Main Street.

One suspect demanded cash at the point of a gun, while the second went behind the counter and grabbed cigarettes, cash and a variety of lottery tickets. The culprits were last seen running north from the store.

Investigators need help to identify two males of unknown races. The gunman was five-foot-six and his accomplice was shorter. Both were dressed in black clothing, black masks and gloves.

Crime Stoppers would be interested in hearing from anyone who can suggest possible suspects for police to investigate.

If you have any information that leads to
