Winter Carnival set to go of the plans, she said. And community groups and businesses will sponsor activities. For example, the Milton Jaycees will hold a pancake breakfast at 8 a.m. and the Milton Lions Club will sponsor the Snowpitch Tournament (winter baseball).

Loblaws will sponsor a free public skate and the Link Foundation has committed itself to putting on a sledge hockey demonstration.

"Plans are still developing," Ms Ward said. "The schedule of activities will be confirmed in the next week or so."

All activities will take place in and around Milton Memorial Arena and the Milton Leisure Centre.

Organizers knocked around the idea of expanding the carnival to two days as in previous years, but there simply isn't enough time, she said.

"We'd rather have one day that's half decent rather than two days with not enough activities."

The town is trying to reduce its role in community functions as a cost-saving measure. It plans to cut back financial support for such events and eventually eliminate funding from its budget altogether, she said.

Anyone interested in volunteering at the carnival and any businesses or community groups willing to sponsor activities are asked to contact Ms Ward at 878-7211.

Miltonians interested in putting a team together for the Snowpitch Tournament are asked to call Urban Faria at 876-4712. The cost per team to register is $125, which includes at least three games.
