Redditt, Seeds lead midgets' charge over Raiders 11-4

The Sandstone Transport AA midgets continue to punish their Tri-County playoff opponents, with the vastly inferior Georgetown Raiders as their latest victims Friday at Alcott Arena.

On the strength of four-goal nights by Jeff Seeds and Luc Redditt — who has now scored 11 times in two post-season outings — the Winterhawks laid an 11-4 beating on their North Halton rivals.

Milton's one-two punch also combined for six assists, with Redditt posting four and Seeds registering the other two. Their efforts helped the 'Hawks establish a 49-16 shots on goal cushion as well as a seven-goal triumph.

Jeff Chaisson and Ben Wilson were the key playmakers on the night, collecting five and four assists respectively. Jeff Mitchell tallied twice and set up a third while Cory Leigh scored once and added an assist.

Paul Loader had two assists, with single helpers going to Dan McDuffe, Steve Turner and Brent Van Loosen.

The local truckers will be looking to dominate the OMHA playdowns as well. Their first-round opposition will come from Oakville, who will host game one of the best-of-five series tomorrow (Thursday) night at River Oaks Arena. Game time is 9 p.m.
