Phone scammer on the loose

Police are advising local residents to be wary of a phone scam following a complaint from a Bowes Street residence.

According to the report, an unknown male falsely representing the Halton Regional Police Services Board requested a donation to the Missing Children's Fund during a March 21 call.

The man said a cheque could be dropped off at a nearby mailbox for pick-up.

"This party has nothing to do with Halton police and we're advising people not to adhere to any requests," said Det. Sgt. Ron Welsh.

Girl assaulted

A 13-year-old Milton female suffered facial bruises and swelling Monday afternoon during an incident on Woodward Avenue near Martin Street.

Police report the teen was punched in the head several times

Police Blotter

another girl following a heated argument.

A 14-year-old Milton girl has been charged with assault and breach of probation.

Boyfriend charged

A 41-year-old Milton man was charged with assault causing bodily harm March 22 following an incident at a Ninth Line residence.

A man was arguing with his girlfriend shortly after midnight when he struck her in the face, police said. The woman sustained bruises to her eye, cheek and lip.

Heist from shack

A Honda portable electrical generator and eight safety harnesses (with Canadian Highway International insignias) were removed from a Ninth Line construction shack sometime last weekend. The value of the missing equipment is $5,000.

Theft from auto

An early morning trip to Tim Hortons was costly for a local resident Monday when someone stole $3,300 worth of computer equipment from his vehicle.

A Barracuda hard drive, cables and a controller were among the items removed at approximately 7:30 a.m.

Cable box damaged

A 13-year-old Milton male faces a charge of mischief following an incident at E.C. Drury High School March 22.

The school's night security guard witnessed a group of boys damaging a cable box on the property. One youth was apprehended at the scene by police.

The suspect will appear in Milton court Friday, Apr. 18.

New education director may be named in April

Halton Board of Education chair Linda Glover said the search for a new director of education to replace Bob Williams — who is stepping down to become a superintendent — is entering the stretch run.

She said the four remaining candidates will be interviewed by the search committee next week with interviews before the full board following soon after. The new director will possibly be named by mid-April.
