Gymnasts set for autumn

With autumn quickly approaching, the Milton Springers Gymnastics Club is ready to spring into action with a variety of programs suitable for every age.

The club's gymnasts have already commenced summer camp and are hard at work getting into condition for the coming year.

Registration dates for Recreational Gymnastics Programs are:

Sept. 5 6.30-9 p.m. Sept. 6 1.30-2.30 p.m.

Registration for Recreational Gymnastics Programs will take place at the New Springer's Gym, 312 Alliance Rd. (just off Steeles Ave. on the corner of Wheelabrator and Alliance Rd.)

Tryouts for Girls and Boys Advanced Recreational will take place Thursday, at 1 p.m. (Minimum age for this program is 9 years as of Jan. 1, 1985)

All tryouts will be held at the old facitity at 275 Main St. East (The Olde Fire

An administration fee of $2 will be charged for all tryout programs.

If you have a child interested in gymnastics; try a session of recreational gymnastics. For children who show more potential in gymnastics, there are the tryout programs. Each child will be assessed by the coaches during the tryouts to determine what program they are best suited for.

Gymnastics is something from which everyone can benefit and Milton Springers have tried to create programs to do just

For a view at gymnastics, join the Milton Springers, Thursday at 6 p.m. in Milton Mall. The club's gymnasts will be demonstrating their gymnastic ability and any questions will be gladly answered.

Hornby up on Cayuga 1-0

Hornby-Remax went to Cayuga Thursday for the first game of the finals in the O.R.S.A. Intermediate 'B' playoffs.

Al Few pitched the complete game picking up a 2-0 shutout. The total offence for the game came in the third inning when Dale Inglehart hit a one-out single, was sacrificed to second by Tony Ceelen, and then Tom Marchment drilled a line-drive home run right out of the park.

Cayuga threatened with Chris McSorley hitting four singles and reaching third base on one occasion. But Few was able to pitch out of the trouble all evening and ended the game with 17 strikeouts and gave up only five hits.

Hornby will host Cayuga Thursday at 8.45 p.m. and will play the final game, if necessary, Saturday at 8.30 p.m. at Horn-
