Euchre season begins at Boyne omagh
By Ella Patterson

The Boyne Euchre club held the first euchre of the winter season on Tuesday Oct. 2 at Boyne Centre with eight tables in play. Winners with high scores were Vi Bentley, Charlotte Greenless, Fanny Clements, Loretta McCarron, Frank Peacock, Jack Wilkie, Doreen Wilson, Ada Sinclair. Lone hands prizes won by Peggy Johnson and Harvey Dunn. Next party will be Oct. 16.

Guests from Port Credit, Campbellville, Boston, Bethel and St. George Anglican churches attended the dessert luncheon at Omagh Presbyterian Church on Thursday Oct. 6. Mrs. C. Patterson WMS president welcomed the ladies and presided for the program which followed. Mrs. Gladys McLellan gave the devotionals and Mrs. Grace Anderson led in a sing along.

Marjorie Lister of Drumquinn gave an interesting talk of dolls and their history illustrating her message with about 50 dolls she had on display. Some of these were antique but all were both beautiful and cuddly. Ada McCann presented gifts to Mrs. Lister and Mrs. Anderson in appreciation.

An invitation was given to the ladies by St. David's WMS, Campbellville to their thanksgiving Thurs. Oct. 25 at 1 p.m.

Omagh Presbyterian WA members are preparing for the fall bazaar to be held at Boyne Centre on Saturday Oct. 20 at 1:30-3:30 p.m. with tea tables and the usual bake and sales tables. The second meeting of Hornby South 4-H was held at the leader's home on Thursday, Oct. 4. President Karen Wilkes opened the meeting with Debbie Rayner secretary. Instruction was given on preparing materials for making quilt samples using templates for the pattern. Man over the Mountain, and doing the applique stitch.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Pechaluk of Milton on the birth of their daughter on Sunday Oct. 7.

Little Samantha Pechaluk spent the weekend with her young friend Katie Patterson and family.

Delightful fall weather and the beautiful colours of the trees made for a happy Thanksgiving.

Armed robbers are sought

The Gulf Gas Bar, 7433 Trafalgar Rd., was robbed of between $300 and $500 last Friday night.

The 16-year old male attendant who was doing paperwork in the office was ordered to lie on the floor by two masked men carrying handguns. The attendant received no injuries.

The suspects are described as white and between the ages of 17 and 18. Police are still investigating the robbery.

Messy thieves
Approximately $200 damage was caused by thieves who broke into the Campbellville Lions Club Hall on Guelph Line early last Wednesday morning.

Halton Regional Police believe juveniles looking for cash may be responsible for the damage.

According to police, a rear window was smashed to gain entry to the building. The culprits then proceeded to smash through fresh drywall and force their way into the main ground area. Several padlocks were ripped off doors as well as hinges removed to gain access into locked areas.

Police are continuing their investigation.
