

Springers put on a show for their folks

The Milton Springers gymnastics club was a busy place this week, as parents from the recreational programs were invited to observe their children at regular class time during the week.

Joanne McSweeney was named Springers' gymnast for the month of October.

Of course all gymnasts put forth their best effort as they demonstrated their gymnastic skills under the watchful eyes of parents and coaches.

Perhaps the most delightful group was the enchanting kindergym as they strutted their stuff to proud onlookers. With beaming smiles they illustrated their co-ordination and new found skills on beam, bars, vault, rings and floor.

These delightful tykes certainly let it be known what recreational gymnastics is all about. Fun, of course and that is exactly what they were doing.

Many parents were impressed with the improved co-ordination of these youngsters. This is an important part of the kindergym program and one area coach Cherle French has done an excellent job on.

Dart league off to a strong start

Thursday Night Dart Tournaments, which got underway for the first time Nov. 8 at the Charles Hotel, are already proving to be popular and competitive! Players from Burlington, Brampton, Oakville and Milton are pitting themselves against each other to find the best player of the evening.

The two Thursday have seen an increase in the number of lady dart players showing an interest in the tournaments and having some competitive games against their male counterparts. It must only be a matter of time before we see a female singles winner on a Thursday evening.

G and L Distributing sponsored the Nov. 8 tournament. There was some interesting games played with high scores and fast shooting from both teams. The winners of the doubles competition were Tim Read and Bob Randall, while the runners-up were Paul Lewis and Tim Collins. In the singles final, Tim Read from Oakville beat Paul Lewis from Milton. Dave Bousfield of Milton won the consolation final.

Darts Plus was the sponsor for Nov. 15. Once again, competitive games were played with the results of: Chaz Higgins and Nick Thomas won against Brian Howard and Gordon Goodban in the doubles final. In the singles final, Mike Thomas from Burlington beat Brian Howard from Milton. In the consolation doubles final "Bubba" and Alvin beat Dave Wallace and Rick Litchfield.

We have now increased our dart boards to eight therefore increasing our capacity for players. Anyone interested should come down to the Charles Hotel between 7:30 and 8 p.m. on any Thursday.

Sherratt girls sixth in Cup

The girls volleyball team from Sam Sherratt elementary school distinguished themselves by placing sixth of 24 teams in the Ontario Cup tournament over the weekend in Barrie.

The Ontario Cup brings together the best elementary schools in the province.

Sherratt's boys team also made the trek up Highway 400 but failed to advance out of their pool.

The girls side advanced from the first round by finishing with a 7-5 record in their pool which was good enough for third place.

The team beat Sunderland and Indian Wells (Chatham) schools by 2-0 scores, tied Bayview Heights (Toronto), Warnicka (Barrie) and Centennial (Georgetown) 1-1, and lost 2-0 to John McRae School of Scarborough.

In the next round, Sherratt's girls beat St. Stephen's School of St. Catharines 2-0 before losing 2-0 to Leamington which eliminated them from further action.

The boys' team finished with a 7-5 record in their pool as well but finished in fourth place and did not advance further.

Sherratt's boys defeated St. Stephen's (Toronto), Flamborough and Hillcrest (Barrie) 2-0, tied Queen Mary (St. Catharines) 1-1 and lost 2-0 to Whitby and Glashan (Ottawa) 2-0. The loss to Queen Mary in the second game of the match spelled the difference between advancing to the next round.

The two teams will vie for the North Halton championship Thursday when they play Centennial school at Acton High School.

Strong Burlington team slips by Steelers 3-1

Milton Teal Interiors came up against a strong Burlington team Thursday night and came away the losers 3-1 in a junior girls hockey game.

The girls played hard as Jo Ann Hamill scored the Teal goal after a scramble around the net.

Jamie Picard and Jennifer Bascom played well on defence and Valerie Wood put in a strong effort after missing several games.

Milton Frankel Steelers suffered their first setback of the season when they lost 4-1 to Flamborough in intermediate designed to keep you fit over these cold winter months.

The Santa Claus Parade is sneaking up on us quickly. Many eager Springers are rapping on doors seeking support. All sponsors are greatly appreciated as the gymnasts cartwheel their way through town with Santa Sunday.

For an opportunity to view what the club girls are doing, join the Springer's at the Milton Mall, Saturday, Dec. 1 from 1-3 p.m. The pre-competitive and competitive gymnasts will do their utmost to entertain you, while demonstrating some of their skills on various apparatus.

Milton Springers continue to host bingo every other Wednesday afternoon at Bingo World in Oakville. For any Bingo lovers wishing to join us, the Springers will be hosting bingo Nov. 21, Dec. 5 and Dec. 19. Support is greatly appreciated.

ALMOST ANYONE CAN SELL YOU A CHAIN SAW...
...But not just anyone can sell you a STIHL®
 Each year, STIHL rejects about twice as many applications from potential dealers as they accept.
 Some are turned down because they are not prepared to carry an inventory of spare parts. Others because they don't provide service AFTER the sale.
STIHL IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THAT THIS DEALER HAS MET ALL THE REQUIREMENTS FOR SELLING AND SERVICING THE WORLD'S FIRST — AND FINEST — CHAIN SAWS:
GOWLAND'S RECREATION & Farm Equipment Ltd.
