

Cabbage Kids pay visit

Mrs. Galoto's and Ms. Middaugh's grade three classes had several additional children in their classes on the first day back from the Christmas holidays.

Ten Cabbage Patch Kids attended their first day at school with their adoptive parents. It was fun to observe how they were alike and different.

After classifying how they were alike and different, they made a list of all the ways the "kids" could be different from each other, e.g. hair—colour, style, length; Eyes—colour, size; Nose—shape, size; Mouth—shape; Dimples—number; Skin—colour; Sex—boy or girl; Shape of hands, legs, elbows; Clothing—type, material, colour, designs, trim, stripes; Shoes—style, colour, closures, stripes. Now, let's hear from some of our loving, "proud parents."

My Cabbage Patch Kid

Hi! My name is Vicki Morrison. I am an adopting parent who adopted a little Cabbage Patch Kid. The sex of my baby is a girl. Her name is Christina and her middle name is Ursuline. She has red hair, green eyes and one dimple. On her she has a yellow shirt and yellow pants. She also has white socks and white shoes.

She came with a little saying that said "I like my food cut up in little pieces and if you do this I'll love you forever."

Hi! My name is Krista Sherry and I'm going to adopt Christine Carol.

She has light brown hair with a bow in it and she has big green eyes and one dimple on her cheek. She also has red rosy cheeks and she has a small nose and a big smile and she has a white mini dress with ribbons on the bottom and a small heart on the right and short sleeves and white tights and white running shoes.

And I love her very much!

E.W. Foster

Hi! My name is Cindy Card. I'm the mother of Nelly Ninette. She was born September 1, 1983, and bumblebees scare her a little bit she says. Her Grandfather's name is Barry and her Grandmother's name is Linda. Her cousins' names are Michelle and Christine. Her hair is brown. She has a dimple and brown eyes. Her hair is in pigtails.

She is a pretty little girl. I wish when I grow up I have a girl like her. She is so cuddly.

Former resident dies

Sincere sympathy is extended to those who mourn the passing of Gordon Robinson Jan. 26 at Mississauga Hospital.

Mr. Robinson was a life long resident of Omagh area. In 1919 he married Millie Downs and farmed for almost 50 years on the fifth line farm where he was born. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson retired to Milton and recently to Mississauga.

In addition to farming Mr. Robinson was the pound keeper and fence viewer for this area. He is survived by his wife and sons Emmerson, Edward and daughter Merle, ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, also a brother Stanley and Howard (deceased).

New worker is appointed

The Halton Children's Aid Society has chosen a new supervisor of family services for Milton, Acton and Georgetown.

The appointment of Dan Horne, a social worker with the society since 1979 who concentrated his efforts in north Halton, became effective recently.

He will supervise the after hours team, a corps of social workers who are on call evenings and weekends—and a fifth member has to be hired. Mr. Horne will also be responsible for special services and the North Family Service Team—four social workers.

He will continue to work out of the society's Oakville headquarters, "so I'll be doing a lot of driving."

Having focused much of his work in Milton, he represented the CAS on its Council for Youth, which developed a neighborhood centre; and is also a member of the Case Management Subcommittee of the regional Child Abuse Council.

Ellen Shipp celebrates 98th

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. (F.C.) Ellen Shipp of Essex, Ont., formerly of Hornby, who is celebrating her 98th birthday today Feb. 1.

While Mrs. Shipp and her late husband Fred lived on their Hornby area farm (formerly Hornby Greenhouse), she directed pageants for Hornby Anglican Church, coached Norval Junior Farmer plays and assisted with the old-time concerts at Norval, all more than 40 years ago.

Mrs. Shipp is enjoying good health and keeps her own home, attending church and social functions when weather permits. She reads the Canadian Champion every week, according to her friend Mrs. Spensor Wilson who sends her the paper regularly.
