By Ella Patterson

Greetings and good wishes to Lorna Devlin on her fifth birthday Feb. 25. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Teague on their wedding anniversary, Feb. 29. Married on Feb. 29, 1964, this will be their fifth anniversary.

Scotch Block and Hornby South 4-H Club members are meeting in Ligny Hall for the spring homemaking club project "Fitness Fare". The girls are studying and preparing food for all meals of the day, stressing that eating breakfast is very important for good health.

The object of the project is to learn to balance eating with proper exercise, to control weight with exercise rather than severe food restriction (reducing diets). To study the foods that provide energy and to understand that well chosen snacks can fit into a good food plan is also part of the program.

Several delicious dishes have been prepared and enjoyed by all. The club executive, president Lisa Morton, vice Debbie Rayner, sec. Frances Chisholm. Leaders are Mrs. Wilkes and Ella Patterson. Achievement night is scheduled for April 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Devlin and family were recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Richardson at Jarvis, Ont.

The Saturday night euchre Feb. 25 at Hornby Centre had the following winners: Olive Tasker, Peggy Johnson, Eileen Jackson, Sybil Shields, Charles Johnson, Wilmer Mason, Eva Presswood, Wes Durie and Charles Wilson. Special prizes by Mrs. Shaw won by Doreen Wilson and Jack Wilkie. There were 13 tables in play.

Jean Jones was guest speaker at Bethel United Church on Sunday Feb. 26. Miss Jones is completing her studies at Theology College and will be ordained in June.

Plans set for lake hike

The Milton Jaycee Club is now in the detail planning stage for the June 3 hikeathon to support the Crawford Lake restoration project.

The Jaycees have pledged their efforts to help raise $50,000 for the construction of an authentic longhouse of the exact type used by the Indians when they lived at Crawford Lake more than 400 years ago.

Part of the hikeathon concept will be a

"family walk" in which support from the schools and service organizations will be sought by the Milton Jaycees.

With hundreds of Miltonians joining thousands of other hikers, the quest to raise $50,000 is a real possibility.

Further information can be obtained by contacting Jim Kettle at 878-5724. The club meets on the third Tuesday of every month in the Bayricher Hof.
